FIRST STEPS ON MUSEUM PLAN TAKEN

Construction of Building on Shores of Lake Merritt to House Snow African Collection Is Purpose.

Permanent Body Will Campaign for Project; Supervisors Pledge Support; Knowland Is Chairman.

The first steps toward the ultimate construction of Oakland's great museum on the shores of Lake Merritt were taken last night at a meeting of civic and club leaders in the council chambers at the city hall.

The meeting was at the call of Mayor Davis, who invited a representative gathering. The citizens organized as for a campaign and it was agreed that a definite plan of action for raising funds and public approval for the museum project will be submitted at the next meeting, at the call of the chair, October 3, at 8 p. m.

J. R. Knowland was elected chairman. Joseph E. Caine was named first vice-president and Howard Welt second vice-president. Harold Weber, secretary to the mayor, was made secretary.

The permanent organization will handle the task of showing to the city of Oakland what it has as assets to start a great permanent museum, and will find ways and means for making the campaign a success, so that the permanent building, an attraction for tourists from all over the country, will be erected as quickly as possible, to house the Snow African Game Collection and other exhibits which may be given to Oakland in the future.

Sub-committees to handle the detail work will be named shortly by the chairman.

COMPLETE APPROVAL OF PLAN VOICED.

Complete approval of the museum plan was voiced last night by civic leaders, clubmen and club-women after Mayor Davis read his opening statements when the meeting convened.

The mayor said:
"I have called the meeting of this committee for tonight because I believe that the time has now come when some definite steps can be taken towards the erection of a fireproof museum building in which to house the Snow African collection. As we all know, Mr.
Snow has offered to give his wonderful collection of African specimens to Oakland, if Oakland provides a fire-proof museum building in which to house them.

"Before providing the building it was necessary that we have a suitable site upon which to erect an appropriate building. This site has been obtained in the Kendall and adjoining properties at Nineteenth, Alice and Harrison streets. We now have one of the most beautiful museum sites in the world with a frontage of 328 feet on Nineteenth street, 538 feet on Alcoe street as extended, 342 feet on the new Lakeside boulevard, 100 feet on Twentieth street, and nearly 600 feet on Harrison street. The total front foot area of this site is 1741 feet, with a total cost to the city of $245,000, making the average cost per front foot $140.

"The administration has been criticized by some interests for the purchase of these properties, but when the purchase price for front foot paid by the city is compared with the selling price of adjoining property, it is seen that the city obtained a most wonderful bargain in these valuable holdings.

STATE BUILDING ON SITE IS HOPE.

"This site provides unlimited areas for, not only a museum building, but for the erection of another beautiful structure, and it is my hope that this site will be graced with a state building in the near future.

"Two years ago I traveled throughout the state and secured the support of Chambers of Commerce, legislators and the press, for a state building for Oakland, and I have great hopes that this building will be obtained for our city at the coming session of this ideal museum building site.

"I think that this is the proper time for the committee to establish its permanent organization and to choose officers. I will therefore declare the next order of business to be the nomination of officers and show that this building is to be for all of our people.

time for the committee to establish
its permanent organization and to

she owes him the trifling sum of

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—
Twelve U. S. destroyers have been ordered from Norfolk, Va., to Constantinople, it was reported at the navy department late today.

Sending of the destroyers was requested by Admiral Bristol, American high commissioner at Constantinople.

A supply ship, the U. S. S.
Bridge, will follow the destroyers' flotilla.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—(By the Associated Press.)—Mustapha Pasha, replying to General Harrington's ultimatum, evades the question of the withdrawal of the Turkish troops as demanded, says a Reuter's despatch from Constantinople, but declares that Kemal has no knowledge of a neutral zone. He complains of the action of the British in destroying buildings and roads and concludes by saying he concurs with the allies in the desire to avoid incidents.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 27.
(By the Associated Press.)—It is unofficially forecast that the Kemalist reply to the allied peace note contains conditions unacceptable to the allies, in that the Nationalists insist upon the use of the straits for transporting troops to Thrace before the beginning of the peace conference.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—(By the Associated Press.)—British official circles today considered Russian participation in the Near East conference as probable. It was stated that the French, influenced by the Kemalists, would probably demand Russia's presence.

The receipt of the Russian note on the Near East although it was described as "another abusive, tactless, undiplomatic communication," has been followed by the free admission in official circles that a peace conference with the Soviet government participating in the agreement reached would be best for all concerned, as Russia's vital interest in the future of the straits was also admitted.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 27.—
Reinforcements of Kemalists were reported here today entrenching in the neutral zone to strengthen the positions that have been seized in defiance of the allies.

Guns of the British in the waters adjacent to the Chanak area, where the British are entrenched, have been trained upon the Turks.

A clash is expected as soon as the 48-hour ultimatum expires.

Sir Charles Harrington, commander-in-chief of the British forces, is confident he will be able to cope with the situation if hostilities start.

It was pointed out that the British fleet entirely dominates the area.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 27.—
An armistice conference has been arranged for Sunday to end hostilities between the Turks and Greeks and to prevent war between the Turks and British, according to information from An-

CONSTANTINE STEPS ASIDE AS REBEL SHIPS, TROOPS MOVE TOWARD ATHENS

Crown Prince George Named by Father in His Formal Abdication; No Bloodshed So Far Reported

DEBACLE WAS UNEXPECTED

LONDON, Sept. 27, 6 p. m.—(By International News Service.)
—The allied powers may intervene in Greece to restore order, it was reported tonight. It is understood that diplomatic conversations are in progress between London, Paris and Rome regarding the Greek revolution.

(By United Press)

King Constantine was forced to abdicate the Greek throne in favor of his son, Prince George, following a bloodless revolution of his armies, who demand that Greece wage a finish fight on the Turks to prevent them from occupying Thrace.

Greek warships and large forces of soldiers that have cast their lot with the revolutionists, led by Colonel Gonatas, are reported to be moving on Athens. The greatest disorder prevails there and the country, as far as can be learned, is without a government, the cabinet having stepped out of power just before Con-stantine's abdication. The Greek upheaval seriously complicates the attempts of Great Britain, France and Italy to bring about peace in the Near East.

ROME, Sept. 27.—Greek revolutionaries are marching upon Athens, threatening to occupy the city, according to information from there today. The revolutionists were said to be in complete control of Saloniki, Mitylene and Chios.

Soldiers and sailors co-operated in seizing local administrations of the government.

ATHENS, Sept. 27.—King Constantine has abdicated in favor of Crown Prince George, it was officially announced today.

In a message to the Greek people, the king stated that for the national interest, peace and unity, he had abdicated in favor of the crown prince.

The king, when faced by a revolt in the army following defeat by Turkey, tried to save his tottering throne by the declaration of martial law, but this was of no avail and he stepped out in favor of his son.

Constantine relinquished the throne when reports were received that transports loaded with mutinous Greek soldiers were speeding toward the capital.

It was believed that bloodshed would have resulted if the king had held onto his fast diminishing power much longer.

The abdication of Constantine followed closely the resignation of the cabinet.

The abdication of King Constantine was preceded by a riot of the populace in the capital. The rioters served an ultimatum on their king in which he was given but one hour to step down from the throne.

The king immediately called General Metaxas into conference, at which it was decided the situation was in the hands of the revolutionists.

The official abdication of Constantine was then announced.

Colonel Gonatas, whose name was signed to the manifesto, dropped from an airplane, which demanded Constantine's abdication, is considered the leader of the revolution.
Tchikpoures, whose name was signed to another air proclamation, is also one of the leading spirits.

OTHER ROYALTY IN LINE FOR THRONE.

In case Prince George refuses the throne—and it has been remored lately that he has an aversion to sitting on the Greek throne
—among the next in line is Prince Christopher, who is now in Paris with his wife, the Princess Anastasia, who formerly was Mrs. William B. Leeds, widow of the deceased American tycoon king who poured great wealth into the cause of promoting Greek national unity.

Prince Paul and several other minors are in direct line for the throne before Prince Christopher, but the accession of any of these is improbable because of their extreme youth.

The revolution of the Greek armies had its inception in the islands of Mitylene and Choros, among the soldiers and thousands of refugees from Asia Minor.

DISARMAMENT IS CAUSE OF REVOLT.

The order for the disarmament of the troops was the immediate cause of the outbreak. The soldiers, who expected to keep their guns for trophies, refused to give them up on command of officers.

The movement spread like an epidemic in the navy. Seamen refused to obey the orders issued by the admirals, who soon found themselves powerless to maintain discipline.

In case that none of the Greek royal family is acceptable to the revolutionists—which is entirely within the realm of probability—Venizelos, who governed the country as prime minister before King Constantine was recalled in the elections of November, 1920, looms as the probable ruler.

It was ascertained that Venizeles, who exiled himself from his native land when he was defeated at the polls, and who is now in Paris, will not return to Greece as a member of the government unless the royal family is banished.
VENIZELOS MAY LEAVE EXILE.

Venizelos, an exile, recently gave out a statement that he would never return as long as the line of Constantine was on the throne.

The Greeks, through the vicie-ries of Mustapha Kemal's Turkish Nationalists, have lost all that Venizeles gained for his country during the world war.

It was he who induced the allies, who drew up the treaty of Sevres, to turn over to Greece a territory of Thrace and to make other concessions.

The losing of all this territory precipitated the crisis which drove King Constantine from the throne.

In stepping out, the king obeyed the manifesto served on him by airplane by Colonel Gonatas, who was attached to the Greek armies in the islands of Chios and Mity-lene.

Prince George, if he accepts the throne, must at once assume a stern policy in dealing with the Turks.

The revolutionists make the flat and urgent demand that reinforcements be rushed to Thrace as der to prevent Turkish occupation of the territory.

Constantine's abdication was the second since he ascended the throne, with the avowed hope of re-establishing the ancient Hellenic Empire, on March 18, 1913.

He was crowned upon the assassination of George I, his father. In June, 1917, at the demand of the allies, then including Russia, he left his throne and was taken with his family to Switzerland on a British warship, where he remained until the 1920 elections ousted Premier Venizelos, the "iron man" of the Greeks.

Constantine May Make America Future Home

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Should the abdication of Constantine become effective and should the crown prince refuse to serve, it is pointed out here, then the king's younger brother, Prince Christopher, probably would be called upon to continue the dynasty. This assembly would place Princess Anastasia, the former Mrs. William Leeds, in the position of queen.

Princess Anastasia some time ago arranged for King Constantine to go to America to live in the event of his abdication.

whim of the public making Venizelos a political exile. Constantine seized the opportunity, he believed, of wiping out all question as to his right to the throne and demanded a plebiscite. It was held and resulted in an invitation to "Tino" to return by almost a 100 per cent vote.

On his return he pledged himself again to restore the empire to the glory of the Hellenes, and until the late disastrous defeat of his armies by the Turks had increased Greek territory between fifty and sixty per cent.

Constantine's greatest trouble as a ruler sprang from his marriage to Princess Sophia, the ex-kaiser's sister. During the war, he was charged with being influenced toward the Germans and this fact more than anything else was re-

PARIS, Sept. 27.—(By the Associated Press).—Vice Admiral Andrew T. Long, U. S. N., commander of the American naval forces in European waters, has gone to Constantinople to direct the naval operations should any become necessary in participation with the foreign squadrons, it was stated here today.

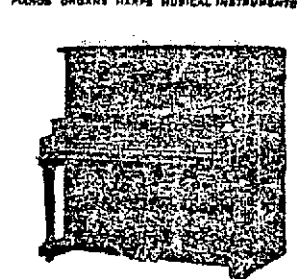

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(By the Associated Press).—Paris

Vice Admiral Long, of the American navy, had gone to Constantinople to direct possible naval operations were not understood in official circles here, where it was indicated that participation of American warships in any demonstration against the Turks was not a part of the present American policy toward the Near Eastern problem.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—(By the Associated Press).—More Turkish Nationalist troops have drifted into the Chanki zone, according to official advices from Constantinople today. This is not regarded in authoritative quarters, however, as aggravating the situation much, and the opinion was expressed in these quarters that trouble would be avoided.

By WEBB MILLER United Press Staff Correspondent. PARIS, Sept. 27.—Fears that the allied plan for peace in the Near East would tumble like a house of cards were expressed here today by government officials on receipt of news that the Greek revolutionists had driven King Constantine from his throne in Athens.

MINE DEATH JURY URGES ARGONAUT BE SAFEGUARDED

No Blame Fixed for Death of 47; State Probe to Begin.

JACKSON, Sept. 27.—(By International News Service).—With the coroner's investigation of the death of 47 miners in the Argonaut gold mine completed, the way was paved today for the opening of the state probe, which will be conducted by a committee of three appointed by Governor Stephens.

In the meantime Byron O. Pickard, representative of the United States bureau of mines, who led the rescue work, has completed a report which will be filed with the federal authorities.

The jury, after two days' testimony and an hour's deliberation, returned a verdict that "the miners came to their death by suffocation from poisonous gas fumes, caused by fire of unknown origin near the 3000-foot level in the main shaft of the Argonaut mine, after they had bulkheaded themselves in on the 4350-foot crosscut, having no means of escape which was free from gas."

While no responsibility was fixed in the verdict for the conditions which made impossible escape of the miners, the jury made the following recommendations:

"We hereby recommend that in the future the Argonaut Mining Company and the Kennedy Mining Company be compelled to keep and maintain an opening with proper doors at one of the lower levels."

"We further recommend that in the future more precautions be taken to prevent fires and that better firefighting facilities be maintained at proper levels as a safeguard against the repetition of such a disaster."

Search continued today for the body of William Fessel, as yet unrecovered.

VICTIM OF KINFEE DECLARED SUICIDE DESPITE STORY

Death of Allen Moyer, Realty Operator, Not Believed Murder.

(Special to the TRIBUNE.)
SANTA ROSA, Sept. 27.—Suicide, rather than murder, today developed as the suspected cause of the death of Allen Moyer, 35, former wealthy San Francisco realty operator, who was found with his jugular vein and wrist slashed at a lonely cabin near here last night.

Facts which have come to light during an investigation of the circumstances of Moyer's death have caused Sheriff John M. Boyes to discredit to some extent, he said today, Moyer's dying statement to the effect that he was attacked by a man who became infuriated at Moyer's refusal to procure liquor for him. There were also discrepancies in Moyer's story, Boyes said.

WORRIED BY LOSS.
Investigation, according to Boyes, revealed that Moyer had been drinking heavily lately, and had been worried and despondent over business affairs. He is reported to have gone through a fortune of $200,000.

The fact that Moyer's wife is said to have left him recently, and to have returned with their two young children to her former home in Chicago, Boyes believes may have some bearing on the suicide theory.

In different portions of the dying statement which Moyer gave to Sheriff Boyes, he gave two different and contradictory descriptions of the man who he said was his assailant, according to the sheriff.

Examination of the wounds, which consisted of a slash across the throat and another across the left wrist, showed that they were of a nature indicating suicide, Boyes said.

MAY BE VICTIM.
The possibility that Moyer was slain is still under investigation, but all circumstances so far brought to light serve, the sheriff said, to disprove Moyer's dying statement that he was attacked.

The fact that two notes—one for $750 and one for $500—which Moyer said were on his person, have not been found, forms one of the strongest present supports to Moyer's story that he was murdered, according to the sheriff.

Moyer until recently was engaged in the real estate business at 45 Montgomery street, San Francisco. He was a member of the Union League Club, and lived at 1562 Vallejo street. He was formerly a real estate operator in Chicago, and is believed to have been wealthy.

Moyer came to Santa Rosa recently in connection with a real estate deal in the Gold Ridge section of Sonoma county.

Mr. Manufacturer: Do You Know About The East-Bay Exposition?

You know that Oakland is the fastest growing industrial city on the Pacific Coast.

You know that the Second Annual East Bay Manufacturers' Exposition will open October 14 at Idora Park, Oakland.

You know also of the direct importance of this Exposition to your business—and to you.

It is not to be a mere desultory display of home-made goods that will be looked at with desultory interest by a few thousand people.

It is to be inevitably a business builder, a market stimulant, an event that will focus and crystallize the public mind upon your product.

There are 400,000 people in this East Bay community who will have a first-hand interest in this Exposition. And 200,000 at least will see it. Many times 200,000 will hear of this show—your show; will hear of the great and progressive manufacturing industry of the East Bay, and of the infinite variety of products manufactured here.

This Exposition will present a graphic cross-section of the East Bay manufacturing industry.

It will print indelibly on the minds of many thousands of people a vivid picture of each separate home-made product that is displayed there.

This is the essence of good business advertising; it is advertising of a sort that no good business man will be likely to pass up.

Said a recent writer in System: "The trouble with manufacturers is that they think the important end of their business is in their shop or factory. It is not. It is outside—the market end. That is why many of them do not get ahead faster."

East Bay manufacturers are certain to get ahead fast. But they will get ahead faster by following the advice in System. Here at home they have a vast market capable of much developing. There is no better way to develop it for their individual and collective good than by reserving space today in the East Bay Manufacturers' Exposition.

Contracts for space may be negotiated through Mr. J. S. Martin, Exposition Manager, Merchants' Exchange Building, 13th & Franklin Sts. Phone Oak. 87 for appointment

15,000 Veterans of '61-65 Pass in Review Again

DES MOINES, Sept. 27. (By the Associated Press).—Bowed in body and thinned in ranks, but stalwart in the spirit that sent them marching through history from Fort Sumpter to Appomattox court house, 15,000 surviving veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic public marched again, triumphant, through the streets of Des Moines and passed in review before their commander-in-chief today. To the familiar roll of their battle drums and the shrill call of the fife they stepped off at a brisk pace behind the colors they bore to victory more than half a century ago.

As the command "Forward, March" rang out the platoon of police stepped off ahead of Marshal H. H. Polk and his staff of mounted officers and the American Legion Argonne Post Band blared out a military march.

LIEUTENANT Colonel Casper Sohenk, chief of the first division, with a body of aides marched at the head of the first Battalion of the 16th Infantry, Iowa National Guard, the regiment which grew up after the war from Iowa's famous fighting position of the Rainbow Division. Two cavalry units, the Fourteenth from Fort Des Moines, regular army men, and the First Squadron of the 113th Cavalry, National Guard, preceded the marching hundreds of Sons of Veterans, many of them to be followed by their warrior fathers.

Side by side in the first automobile of the parade General Lewis S. Pilcher of Brooklyn, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic and Harford McJannet of Mason City, Iowa, national commander of the American Legion, occupied the position of honor at the head of the machine hosts.

One of the Civil War veterans in the annual Grand Army of the Republic parade dropped from fatigue at noon today, from the line of march as it neared the capitol extension grounds and died within 15 minutes. He is known to be a veteran from Minnesota and is believed to have been M. J. Maackhausen, of White Bear Lake, Minn.

Colonel Gus S. Brewer with his aides, serving as chief of the section, and the parade, preceded the U. S. Grant Drum Corps, behind which followed the Illinois department, Grand Army of the Republic, honored with the front position among its comrade departments by reason of seniority in the date of its charter. Pennsylvania, with a surprisingly large attendance, followed Illinois. The Wisconsin Veteran Drum Corps led the Wisconsin department in the ranks of the Ohio department, inconspicuous among his comrades, marched the father of the president, Dr. George T. Harding of Marion, Ohio.

Za Ga Zig Shrine drum corps led the third division. General Pilcher's own state department from New York marched at the head of the division. Pasadena's enthusiastic drum corps followed, making the city echo with its invitation to the Grand Army to go to the Pacific coast in 1924, united the veterans from the two oceans, following Maine and leading California. With California, the members of the state department from Nevada had their place in the column.

Drum corps predominated in the fourth division, commanded by Col. L. D. Ross, as chief.

Col. M. Stanley headed the fifth division with Des Moines high school military band.

Des Moines gave much of its enthusiasm to the Iowa Veterans' drum corps and Pulver's drum corps which led the Iowa marching Civil War men at the end of the fifth division. It was reported for the sixth division to bring tears to the eyes of those who had watched the long lines of marching men, many of them advanced in age. They were the casualties of the Civil War and the years that have rolled past since they marched under arms, the disabled men of the Spanish-American war and the physically wrecked bodies of the younger generation that went into battle on foreign soil in the World War. They rode in automobiles.

Native Sons to Hold Outdoor Initiation

Arrangements are being made by Piedmont Parlor No. 120, N. S. G. W., for another initiation similar to the one held recently in Redwood Canyon. It is announced that at least 100 candidates will be initiated. The delegates to be held by Piedmont Parlor's band of 60 pieces. The initiation will be held next month and will complete the parlor's membership drive.

The following delegates to the grand assembly of past presidents in San Francisco have been chosen by the Eastbay Chapters Assembly No. 3: James P. Cronin, James J. Dignan, Nicholas J. Meinert and Charles Corrigan.

The members of the Ways and Means committee appointed by Governor Barnett are: Nicholas J. Meinert, chairman; J. P. Cronin, H. B. Farley, H. C. Hopp, A. T. Sousa Jr., F. K. Merritt, C. Case, J. Ansel, D. Fenlon and J. G. Beatty.

Auto Firm Seeks Factory Permit

Application was made to the building department today by the Chevrolet Automobile company for permission to erect a sub-factory, 80 by 64 feet, on the land owned by the company at Garfield, Hillside and Seventy-second streets. The factory will be a 2-story brick, concrete and steel structure and will cost $250,000. Albert Kahn is the architect.

In order to allow construction of this factory, the city council recently allowed a seventy-second street between Garfield and Hillside, and the factory will straddle the former site of the street.

"I'm Through" Wife Tells Husband

"When you can get a big 40-foot lot with all home-building material complete FREE! and with the cement walks, curbs, gutters, macadamized street, seven, etc., all in and paid for, for only $400 and on terms that are LESS than we are now paying for rent! I'm through RENTING," she said.

CITIZENS FORM ORGANIZATION TO BOOST MUSEUM

Construction of Building for Snow African Collection Is Purpose.

The museum project was discussed from all angles. "The museum is the poor man's travelogue and university," said H. D. Welby, education. "I believe our people, when they realize we have the finest collection brought out of Africa, will unite to make this project a splendid success."

"The city has secured one of the most beautiful museum sites in the world," said J. H. MacFarlane, "and I believe our people, when they realize we have the finest collection brought out of Africa, will unite to make this project a splendid success."

"I pledge hearty co-operation to the project," said C. S. Young, publisher of the Post-Enquirer.

SUPERVISORS PLEDGE SUPPORT. Support of the Alameda County Board of Supervisors was pledged by Chairman W. J. Hamilton.

"The supervisors and myself personally will do everything in our power to put this museum over," said Hamilton.

"I compliment the administration on its choice of site," said Attorney David Oliphant.

H. A. Snow, explorer and hunter, who collected the great African collection, presented it to the city of Oakland, expressed his approval of what has been done by the city in purchasing a site to house the great collection.

"I have seen every museum and site in the world," said Snow, "and this is the only one I have ever seen anywhere. A museum must be placed on solid ground. This site provides that."

Rev. John Snape pleaded that the citizens of Oakland "get down to brass tacks and suggest several avenues of publicity for the museum, including films."

J. R. Knowland talked on the value of films as supplements to publicity, and a film was practically agreed upon in order to acquaint the whole city with the museum site.

"Now we must make good to back up the film," said Knowland. Other speakers included Mrs. Minna McGauley, Mrs. C. Quayle, president of the board of library trustees, L. B. Magoon, and Mrs. R. E. Danford.

It was then decided that the city should appoint a committee to formulate a definite plan of action and report to the chairman later. It was also decided to name various committees.

At the conclusion of the meeting of Berkeley can give to the museum project.

STEPHENS PLANS PROBE OF STATE RAIL VIOLENCE

Governor to Send Agent to Report on Plea Troops at Needles.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 27.—Unofficial reports from the governor's office indicate that Arthur Keetch, private secretary to the governor, will be sent to Needles to investigate the strike situation.

James B. Britt was recently sent by the governor to investigate. His report was understood to have advised against sending troops to Needles.

Governor Stephens started the investigation when a delegation of San Bernardino officials came to Sacramento with the request that Needles be put under martial law.

There are said to be 250 U. S. deputy marshals on duty in Needles.

RAIL CONGESTION GROWS.
NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Evidence of rail congestion and car shortages, caused by the shopmen's strike and the harvest traffic boom is coming in from all sections of the country, the Association of Railway Executives announced yesterday.

Little relief for shippers, particularly in the field of non-perishable goods and commodities outside the central district may be expected before November, it was said.

The association reported figures received from its 200 largest members, showing that in the week ending last Saturday 475,000 shop workers, or 88 per cent of the number employed before the strike began on July 1, were carried on the payrolls.

SIGNALERS SEEK RAISE.
CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(By the Associated Press).—Presentation of testimony to the United States Railroad Labor board in the wages and rules dispute involving the Brotherhood of Railroad Signalmen and 42 carriers and subsidiaries ended late yesterday at the conclusion of arguments by representatives of the eastern, southern and western roads. The union is requesting its old war-time wages with differentials above for supervisory classes and a return of the eight-hour basic day.

John Higgin, western roads' spokesman, and John G. Walber, representative of the eastern roads, confined their presentation to the two main issues—wages and rules. Both denied that there have been sufficient changes in economic conditions since the last wage reduction—July 1, 1922—to warrant increases in rates of pay or changes in working rules.

With the rail injunction in full force, agreements were reached yesterday between Attorneys Blackburn Estess and Donald R. Richmond, counsel for the government, and the union heads, respectively, to hold a series of conferences between now and October 5 to determine the future course in arguments on the permanent features of the injunction.

Mrs. Portland, Ore., papers please copy.

Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral Friday morning, September 29, at 9:30 o'clock from the parlors of Oakland Undertaking company, 3479 Piedmont ave., Oakland, thence to St. Anthony's church, 15th ave. and E. 15th st., Oakland, where a requiem high mass will be celebrated for the repose of his soul commencing at 10 o'clock. Interment, Holy Sepulcher.

Pair Attempt to Force Way Into Home

ALAMEDA, Sept. 27.—The police are endeavoring to locate the two young men who attempted to force their way into the home of Victor Marks, 1108 Pearl street, last night. Marks, according to the story which he told the police this morning, noticed the two standing at the corner of Pearl street and San Jose avenue, as he returned to his home late at night. He had hardly entered when his bell rang and he found the two standing at the door. The older one asked to use the telephone. Marks stated that it was too late. Then, according to the police, the two attempted to force their way into the home.

There are said to be 250 U. S. deputy marshals on duty in Needles.

THE OAKLAND BANK'S New Building—and its meaning

NATURALLY the directors of THE OAKLAND BANK would not authorize an expenditure of approximately $1,000,000 on a building program, if there were not a real need for additional banking quarters at the main bank.

THE OAKLAND BANK has, and is, growing with COMMERCIAL and INDUSTRIAL OAKLAND. The need for more office space in the downtown district and the demand for banking service on the part of our growing number of customers has made this new 17 story building a necessity.

THE CONSTRUCTION of this new building, too, is indicative of the present progressive policy of this bank—a fact to interest every citizen of Oakland—customer and non-customer alike.

POINT OUT this new building to newcomers in Oakland. Tell them just what this new construction work means.

VERDICT OF GUILT FOUND IN SLAYING OF BOY BY GANG

Second Degree Murder and Manslaughter Sentences Face Youths.

Frank August Avilla, 17 years old, was found guilty of murder in the second degree in connection with the slaying several months ago of William R. Reinking, 19, bellboy of the Athenian-Nile Club. A jury last night in the court of Superior Judge Lincoln S. Church returned the verdict.

The same jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter against Tony Alexander, 23, who was tried jointly with Avilla as a result of the death of the bellboy.

Two sisters of the slain youth, Tecla and Elinor Reinking, were in the courtroom when the jury returned with the verdict. They had been constant attendants at the trial, which started last Wednesday.

LIKED TO WOLVES.

The prosecution of Avilla and Alexander was handled by Frank Shay, chief deputy district attorney, who compared Avilla and Alexander's attack on Reinking to that of a pack of wolves.

Reinking was killed on the night of July 6, when he was beaten to death on his way home. Two days later Alexander and Avilla were arrested by police detectives and later confessed participation in the attack.

The evidence, according to Shay in his address to the jury, showed that Avilla was the leader of a gang of fifteen youths the night of the alleged murder, and that he deliberately picked a quarrel with Reinking.

NET DEATH SMILING.

"Reinking went to his Maker with a smile on his face," said Shay. "He was not looking for trouble, but this leader of a pack of wolves was determined to draw blood that night and he did. Revenge for a fancied wrong was the motive for this crime, the same motive which sets nations at each other's throats, and the same motive which resulted in 5000 men and women being charged with murder in the United States last year."

Shay called upon the jury to lay aside any feelings of pity they might have and realize that the taking of human life must be punished if life was to be made safe.

During the trial Alexander took the stand and testified that he had tried to act as a peacemaker at one stage of the trouble and took no part in the fight with Reinking. Avilla wept when he told his story to the jury of "how he munched the kid and he fell down, hitting his head on the pavement."

Dr. John Stephens Elected Head of Oakland Pastors

DR. JOHN STEPHENS, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, who was elected as president of the Oakland Ministerial Union yesterday.

Dr. Charles L. Kloss Gives Address on Europe at Meeting.

Dr. John Stephens, pastor of the First Methodist church, yesterday was elected president of the Oakland Ministerial Union, to succeed Dr. Frank M. Sibley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who has been the head of the organization for a year. Other officers elected were: Dr. R. E. Cooper, vice-president; Dr. H. Schenkofsky, secretary; and Rev. R. C. Waddell, treasurer. The election, which was unanimous, took place at the monthly meeting of the union, which was held yesterday noon at the Y. W. C. A. The nominating committee consisted of Rev. W. A. Schwinley, Rev. D. C. Colegrove and Dr. J. N. Garst.

The treasurer's report for the year was submitted by Rev. W. A. Schwinley, who received from that office yesterday. A number of new members were welcomed to the union during the meeting.

Dr. Charles L. Kloss, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, who has recently returned from a tour of Europe, was the speaker of the day. He spoke on "Economic and Religious Conditions of Europe."

He stated that it was more of a feeling of depression than elation with which one viewed the conditions in Europe at present. "It is a feeling of depression," he stated. "The world conditions are lamentable."

"With France and England constantly drifting apart, the trouble in Ireland, the aloofness of America, and the pleasure mad crowds, the blasé youth and the industrial unrest, indicative of the present times."

"The rank and file of Europe is paying for the war and will for some time, as is evidenced by the shabby appearance of all Europe. Unemployment is manifest chiefly in England."

"The conditions in Germany are promising, the professional military, and the former well-to-do classes are suffering however. Two years will tell the strength of the republic. If the republic lasts that long I feel certain that it will then be securely established. The most promising thing of all, is that the military which was so much in evidence before the war, is not noticeable."

"A moral re-education seems to have taken hold of the young people of that country and it is they who are in many cases responsible for the clearing up of the amusements and various other things. High school and college students picketing indecent movies, and plays, which ran rampant following the war, has resulted in that style of amusement having been almost entirely eliminated."

"Who knows but that the great revival movement which may sweep the world, may come from sad, war-torn Germany."

Dr. Kloss gave a short review of the Passion Play of Oberammergau in Bavaria, which he attended, stating that the charge of commercialism which had been made against the people there was entirely false. Many things, he stated, were cheaper there than in other sections of the country.

"The soft handed way of religion and the present treatment of criminals is the cause of the crisis of the present day," Dr. Kloss concluded. "The only thing that will ever bring the world out of it is the central and sincere message of the Gospel."

CONVENTION OF EDUCATORS BIG OAKLAND "AD."

Coming of 20,000 Instructors Next July Means Great Boost for City.

The National Educational Association convention to be held in this city next July will be the biggest single piece of advertising given to the city of Oakland in recent years. This is the opinion of Oakland business men and leaders who see in the coming of 20,000 school teachers a view of Oakland on the part of the nation.

Oakland's visitors will come here from every state in the union. A majority of them will be making their first trip to the bay region, and it is probable that a comparatively small per cent know Oakland.

The coming of the National Educational Association Convention to Oakland next July is a most important event," said Roscoe D. Wyatt, managing director of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce. "The N. E. A. meetings always attract the brightest minds in the teaching profession because of the worth while subjects discussed at these meetings. The leaders from our own city and from all over the country gathered together in Oakland—representatives coming from universities, colleges, seminaries, high schools and public schools. All this offers to Oakland an almost unprecedented opportunity to show these delegates the advantages of the Eastbay district living, working and business conditions. They will be shown that progress has been made in business, economic and social fields. Delegates to this convention will return to every part of the United States, imbued with the spirit of Oakland as expressed in the slogan, 'Onward Oakland.'"

WILL SHOW ADVANTAGES.

"The Chamber of Commerce is glad to have played its part in securing the convention and in thus offering to Oakland this great opportunity to impress the whole United States with the advantages offered by this community."

"I was very pleased to learn that the N. E. A. convention was to come to Oakland," said Tom Egelson, president of the Oakland Rotary club. "The decision which was made in Washington Monday means that Oakland, during the coming year, is to have one of the greatest opportunities for advertising itself that ever has been accorded it. It is to be our privilege to entertain educators from all parts of the United States and if we send them away with a favorable impression of our city, hundreds of thousands of school children will learn from their teachers of the benefits of this city by the Golden Gate."

BEST OF ADVERTISING.

"The convention of the nation's educators will be the best advertising that Oakland could possibly receive. It is advertising that could not be purchased," said Louis Aber, chairman of the convention committee of the Chamber of Commerce and former member of the Board of Education.

"Not only will thousands of educators come to this city during the month of July next year, but an even greater number will stay at home will talk Oakland and read Oakland between now and the time of the convention. Instructors who have known of Oakland and who are general cities in California will definitely locate Oakland on the map and will make it a point to inform themselves about this city. They also will read all the deal about this convention city in educational papers and other magazines. In fact, I believe that as much advertising will come to the city prior to the convention as will be gained during the course of the convention proper."

COLLEGE GIRLS NEED GREAT MANY CLOTHES

"There you heard from your daughter, didn't she, since she went away to college?"

"Oh, my, yes. She says she's desperately homesick and she writes almost every day. Poor girl, she hasn't been away from home much and it is a bit hard to get used to the difference."

"Well, that's a shame. I hope it doesn't spoil the fun of college life for her."

"Oh, it won't. She likes it and will get over her intense feeling of homesickness soon. She is real excited about everything and likes college very well."

"Oh, when she's busy she won't be homesick."

"No, and already she has been invited to several social events, and she says she's busy meeting the nicest folks, and lots of them. She is so pleased with her new life that she says that everything is just right so far. When a girl starts away to school they need so many varieties of clothes, you know. She got a pretty blue serge dress for classes, a little sport suit and some blouses; a pretty navy blue afternoon dress, and a beautiful party dress."

"My, it costs a lot to clothe a girl for college, doesn't it?"

"Yes, and I don't know what we would have done if we had to have all the expense on her however, we got them all at Cherry's on credit and have arranged a most satisfactory term of payments."

Cherry's store for women is at 515 13th street; the store for men, 523 13th street.—Advertisement.

VALLEY SHIPPERS LEARN DETAILS OF OAKLAND RATE

Advantages of Lower Freight Charges Explained by Chamber.

The Oakland rate case now in the consideration of the Interstate Commerce Commission, by which Oakland expects to secure lower rates to and from northern California points, was explained to officials of the United States Valley Chambers of Commerce at a meeting held at the Hotel Oakland yesterday afternoon. The valley chambers were represented by Colonel E. P. O'Hern, president, and Fred Shaffer, secretary and treasurer.

Following yesterday's meeting Colonel O'Hern announced that he would call the traffic committee of the United Chambers of Commerce together at an early date, at which time E. W. Hollingsworth, attorney for the traffic committee of the Oakland chamber, will present Oakland's contentions.

The Oakland Chamber of Commerce is asking for a differential favoring San Francisco on interstate business moving into and out of northern California basing its contention on the fact that the rates are based upon service rendered through San Francisco and that freight from that city travels more than 60 miles farther than does freight passing over the Oakland docks.

At yesterday's meeting Hollingsworth directed attention to the fact that freight from the San Francisco docks to Chicago, following the usual route, traveling by way of Redwood City, Humboldt bridge and Stockton, travel a total distance of 244 miles, while freight from Oakland docks to the same cities travels but 163 miles—a difference of 80 miles.

It is the belief of the officials of the traffic committee that a favorable decision on this case will result in a material increase of tonnage for Oakland and lower rates for the cities of the Sacramento valley.

Those present at yesterday's meeting were: H. W. Forse, E. W. Hollingsworth, G. A. Bahler, Charles P. Howard, Roscoe D. Wyatt, Fred Shaffer, Colonel E. P. O'Hern, Arton Lucas, William H. Mayhew and Charles Fox.

Key Route to Get Electric Ferries

Two new electrically driven Key System ferry boats, each of which will cost half a million dollars, will be put in operation on the first of the year.

This was definitely announced today by George H. Harris, assistant general manager of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railroad, who has just returned from a trip of inspection to the shipyards at San Pedro where the boats are being constructed. The new boats will accommodate 3000 passengers, 1000 more than the boats now in use and special attention has been paid to the restaurant facilities, which will be about the same as the elite of the present restaurants.

RAIN MENACES PRUNES.

ARMY OF 150,000 MEN DECLARED BIG NECESSITY

War Department Heads Say Provision Is Needed for Reserve Plan.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27. (By the Associated Press.)—Army appropriation estimates for the next fiscal year, calling for the present strength of 12,000 officers and 125,000 enlisted men, will be submitted to the budget conference this week with the assertion of Secretary Weeks and his advisers that progressive deterioration in the military establishment will continue unless the regulars are reinforced to the strength of 15,000 officers and 150,000 men asked for last year.

The war department, it was explained, has no option in presenting its figures for next year. It cannot exceed or even equal fully its available appropriations for the present year in preparing its figures for the budget bureau. Yet there is known to be grave concern felt by department officials over reports from corps area headquarters as to the effects of the slash made by Congress, now becoming apparent at army centers.

Some officers declare that the war department may be compelled to ask to be relieved of some of its missions if more adequate provision for the work cannot be made. To what extent it may be necessary to throw overboard the non-regular aspects of the present military policy of the government, like the organized reserve scheme built out of war experience, no official has been willing to suggest.

ECONOMY CAUSES CUT.

There is reason to believe that the situation has already been outlined in administration circles, accompanied by a statement of the deliberately formed judgment of Secretary Weeks and his advisers, but that only great consideration of national economy would justify such impairment of the national defense scheme worked out by Congress in 1920 as has already resulted from cutting the regular army to its present size.

The success of the three-part army plan, if it is financially possible to carry it out, is believed by army officials to have been assured beyond doubt by the spirit displayed in the officers' reserve corps, national guard and civilian.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, by all means get rid of dandruff. It will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Advertisement.

Democratic State Body Elects Purkitt Chairman

Those admirable sentiments, that peace, goodwill and amity, seem to have been the harmonious notes of a political composition rendered at yesterday's meeting of the State Democratic Central Committee at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco. The meeting convened under the baton of retiring State Chairman David S. Ewing of Fresno, and former State Senator Claude E. Purkitt of Willows was elected chairman without any discordant note having been sounded. Nor was the predicted opposition of that group which was reported favoring Sydney Van Wyck of San Francisco for the chairmanship brought to bear in any way.

A distinct optimism pervaded the meeting, caused by jubilation over recent dissensions in the Republican camp, and fostered by the expressed hope that the "bolting" of Friend W. Richardson, Republican nominee for the governorship, might result in a material gain for Thomas Lee Woolwine, the Democratic nominee.

But though this Christmas feeling pervaded the gathering, it looked as one Republican expressed it, "not a word of good things" and the vitality and even the strife of a powerful, turbulent, but winning party, were judged by observers to be entirely absent.

DEMOCRATIC AIDS CHOSEN.

Following the election of Purkitt as chairman, he appointed Randolph V. Whiting of San Francisco as chairman of the executive committee of 61 members which will conduct campaign for William J. Pearson and Thomas Lee Woolwine, the party candidates for United States senator and governor. State central committee delegates from all eight counties south of the Tehachapi will constitute an auxiliary executive committee to assist the state-wide executive committee in campaign work.

Other officers of the state central committee chosen were: Secretary, H. G. Haffer, Los Angeles; first vice-chairman, Mrs. Katherine Braddock, Stockton; second vice-chairman, Mrs. Carrie L. Hoyt, Berkeley; treasurer, William J. Hayes, Oakland.

Although the point was raised military training camps this summer. They found every evidence of high enthusiasm among the young men seeking training. The difficulty was to provide training for all who applied.

GREATER CAMPS URGED. But it is held that if these civilian elements are to be living parts of the army as planned, ready duty in a war emergency, the annual camps must be held on a greater scale than was possible this year. That, it is said, is where the appropriation shoe pinches, both in provision for the camps and in the number of regular officers and men available to give instruction at the camps.

No authorized statement of the war department's attitude has been made available. It is known, however, that the recently completed review of the legislation program. Out of that conference as well as from reports of corps area commanders has come a distinct feeling among the highest army officials that the whole military establishment is on the downgrade and that steps must be taken immediately to check this retrograde movement.

The question of just what can be done to restore morale among officers and men and to care adequately for vast quantities of reserve fighting equipment is now awaiting war department heads. It may be that a personal inspection of every army center by General Pershing or his chief aides will be necessary to map out a course of action. Probably a decision will not be reached until reports from all areas have been received and studied.

ROOT DECLARES LAWS NEEDED TO PREVENT STRIKES

Chairman of N. Y. Republican Convention Tells of Harding's Work.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Early adoption by the Republican congress of laws at once prohibiting strikes which cut off the supply of food or service necessary to the life of the community, and at the same time protect the workman's liberty, was predicted by Elihu Root, temporary chairman, in his address before the Republican state convention today. Touching on the recent rail and coal strikes, Root said:

"We are all employers and laborers and the general public is apt to be impatient about strikes. So long as strikes were a contest between laborers and employers to secure for labor its fair share of the new wealth which has come to mankind through invention and discovery and application of science and the art of organization, the sympathies of the American public were with labor. When a strike becomes an attempt to coerce the public into taking action by cutting off the supply of food or service necessary to the life of the community, I am sure that public feeling goes the other way."

"I think that in this country we are gradually approaching the point where the law of the land will provide for distinguishing between the two kinds of strikes, and protecting the public against compulsion by threat of peril to life or of destruction to the machinery of civilization, and at the same time protect the workman's liberty, to refuse to work and the workman's liberty to work."

REACHED BY PATIENCE.

"I am inclined to think that nothing could be better at this stage of the perennial process of industrial adjustment than the condition which has now been reached through the patience and sympathetic influence of the president. That condition is full and impartial investigation into the rights and wrongs upon which the recent strikes have rested accompanied by a clear and uncompromising declaration by the president of the rule of law and liberty which is to be applied to the results of the investigation."

Declaring that the five things most needed when President Harding took office were an ending of "the autocratic method of government consented to for the purpose of carrying on the war; abolition of the immensely expensive scale of expenditures established during the war; restoration of normal industrial production; establishment of international peace and convalescence from the conviction of a recent international war; and a restoration of the American people to a normal condition."

EVIDENCE OF GOOD WORK.

Root referred to the president's handling of the rail and coal strikes as evidence of the administration bringing the nation back to normal industrial conditions, and cited the five power conferences at Washington as evidence of his skill as a statesman in international affairs.

"The fifth thing I mentioned," he continued, "is our own recovery. And behold, while our government has been going on in this honest, sincere and kindly way, redressing abuses, reconciling differences, and reestablishing a sound conduct of government and life, we find ourselves cured."

Oregon Convention Commends Harding

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 27.—The Republican party of Oregon voiced its principles for the campaign in a platform endorsing the administration of President W. H. Harding and Governor Ben W. Olcott, and defining its stand on State issues.

State Chairman W. H. Toole Jr., in the keynote speech, denounced certain "sinister" influences which he said were undermining party politics and "menacing" State and National government.

The platform declares allegiance to national Republican party, comments President Harding for legislation "that reduced the burden of taxes a billion dollars a year," and for wise diplomacy.

Lodge Is Assailed By State Democrats

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 27.—The Democratic State convention adopted a platform declaring that "in the interest of law and good health, of civic decency, as well as of true temperance, the party, although opposed to the return of the saloon, believed in 'the legal use of beer and light wines.'"

The platform assailed the Republican tariff act of 1922, condemning the "betrayal of the American people" by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge in his leadership for the adoption of the bill, and favored the payment of adjusted compensation to World War veterans.

WHIST PARTY PLANNED.

RICHMOND, Sept. 27.—Point Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, has set Wednesday evening, October 4, for its whist party, to be held in Point Masonic Temple. All Masons, Eastern Star members and their friends are invited to attend.

ROBINSON SOUNDS BOURBON BATTLE CRY IN MISSOURI

Senator Criticizes Administration and Tariff Bill; Reed Is Lauded.

MEXICO, Mo., Sept. 27.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Democratic campaign in Missouri was opened here today with addresses by Senators Joseph Taylor Robinson of Arkansas and A. O. Stanley of Kentucky, assailing the national and state republican administrations for "incompetence and inefficiency."

Senator James A. Reed, Missouri's senior representative in the United States senate, who is a candidate for re-election at the November election, was scheduled to speak tonight.

Declaring the people of the country were disappointed with the results of President Harding and Governor Hyde's administration, Senator Robinson, who was chairman of the Democratic national convention at San Francisco in 1920, asserted that President Harding "for absurd reasons, has failed to fulfill the pledge he made when a candidate to enact adjusted compensation legislation for ex-service men."

ATTACKS TARIFF BILL.

He said the congress, which just adjourned, performed the "worst level of public service known to our political history," and attacked the Fordney-McCumber tariff as "a tribute to tariff profiteers rather than a safeguard to American industry."

He declared the tariff would increase the cost of living while the workers' earning power was being diminished.

COMPLAINS OF SLEUTHS.

Declaring that the Democratic platform since the time of Thomas Jefferson stood for the protection of the rights of the people as provided for in the constitution, he asserted that 30,000 agents and inspectors are employed by the federal government and that "every business man finds an inspector at his elbow, sleuth at his heels, houses are searched, homes outraged and public highways dappled in the blood of offending citizens by a multitude of agents and inspectors ignorant of and indifferent to the rights of the land and the rights of the citizens."

PROHIBITION WIN

BY UNITED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 27.—Prohibition is to be the principal issue for the forthcoming senatorial campaign in New Jersey, United States Senator Joseph Frelinghuysen declared today following his nomination in yesterday's primaries over George Record of Jersey City by a majority estimated at from 30,000 to 100,000.

"Mr. Record's vote, particularly in the outlying districts, was largely a protest against prohibition," Frelinghuysen said at his headquarters in Raritan today.

"Prohibition will be the principal issue of the campaign, but it will not be the only one."

With one exception, Frelinghuysen carried every county in the state by substantial majorities, including Record's home county.

Leaders of the regular Republican organization, headed by former Governor Stokes and former United States Senator Baird, declared Frelinghuysen's victory was an endorsement of the Harding administration, as President Harding is a close personal and political friend of the New Jersey senator.

Governor Edward T. Edwards, the Democratic candidate for the senatorial nomination, was unopposed in the primaries.

Judge Seawell Is Visiting in Eastbay

Judge Emmett Seawell of Santa Rosa, Mrs. Seawell and their son spent the week-end visiting relatives in Oakland and Berkeley. Their daughter, Miss Dorothy Seawell, is a student at the University of California. Although receiving the high vote for associate justice of the Supreme Court, Judge Seawell will, under the phrasing of the statute, have to make the race again. Judge Seawell goes to Modesto next Thursday to address the Modesto Exchange club.

Slain Woman Blamed For Auto Accident

RICHMOND, Sept. 27.—The coroner's jury at the inquest last night into the deaths of Mrs. Marie F. McFall and A. B. Allen, who were killed last Thursday when their auto plunged into the creek near San Pablo, blamed the dead woman for the catastrophe. The jury found that the auto had been overturned when Mrs. McFall interfered with the driver, James P. Lansing, who was unable to control the car with the woman interfering. After hearing the witnesses the jury expressed the belief that both Mrs. McFall and Allen were intoxicated. Mr. Lewis, of Oakland, father of Mrs. McFall, who was arrested and Mrs. A. B. Allen, wife of the dead man, also testified.

Coroner Donnelly conducted the inquest.

War Charges Will Cost Just $5000

STOCKTON, Sept. 27.—The jury in the damage suit of Dillmond Steacy against Henry Wilson and D. C. Gibson yesterday returned a verdict in favor of Steacy for $5000. All parties in the suit are wealthy farmers. The suit grew out of alleged seditious statements which Steacy declared Wilson and Gibson accused him of having uttered during the war, and as a result of which he was arrested, but subsequently discharged. Steacy had a son in the war. Judge J. A. Plummer found the defendants guilty of malice.

GIRL AWARDED SILVER MEDAL FOR SAVING DOG

SANTA ROSA, Sept. 27.—A silver medal was awarded by the San Francisco Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Sunday to Miss Hether B. Spencer of Guerneville Heights, Sonoma county. On one cold November evening Miss Spencer donned her bathing suit and swam to an island in the river, where she heard the cries of a dog, which was caught in a steel trap. The girl rescued the dog.

Piedmont Mayor's Daughter Hurt

PIEDMONT, Sept. 27.—Miss Beatrice Ellsworth, daughter of Oliver Ellsworth, mayor of Piedmont, was injured in an auto accident on the Moraga Valley road near Piedmont last night. She was accompanied by her father at the time. He was uninjured. The automobile in which the mayor and his daughter were riding was struck by a truck belonging to George A. Cockerton, an Oakland coal dealer. It was driven by George Rodgers. Miss Ellsworth suffered numerous cuts and bruises and her ankle was sprained. She was taken to her home in Piedmont.

SHATTERED LOVE LED GIRL TO TAKE OWN LIFE, CLAIM

Woman Found Dead in Chicago Convent Identified as Oakland Teacher.

A shattered love affair was the theory advanced by officials today for the believed suicide of Miss Hilda K. Weldon, former Oakland school teacher, who was found dead yesterday from gas asphyxiation in the Convent of the Sacred Heart in Chicago. Miss Weldon left this city twelve days ago.

The young woman's body was found yesterday afternoon, but positive identification was not made until late last night, when the Chicago authorities got into communication with the police of Oakland and of San Francisco.

Several letters, discovered among her personal effects, according to news despatches, hinted at the motive for her act. One of the letters was from a Birch Woods of Los Angeles, begging forgiveness for not having written before. It also mentioned her sister, Alice.

FRIENDS PUZZLED.
Friends of the young woman in the bay region were shocked at the news of her death, and were unable to make any explanation. Until her departure for the east, on September 15, Miss Weldon had been living with Miss Agnes E. Clary, a school teacher and close friend at 2841 Steiner street, San Francisco.

Miss Clary today expressed the belief that the teacher's death was due to accident rather than suicide. Miss Clary had known Miss Weldon for nine years. She said that the girl was unaccustomed to gas jets or appliances, and probably turned on the gas absent-mindedly after once turning out the flame. She scouted the theory of a love affair, saying that she was sure that Miss Weldon was not enamoured with anyone.

WROTE OF CONTENT.
According to Miss Clary she received a letter from Miss Weldon last Friday in which she indicated that she was happy in the convent. The girl intended to remain in the convent for two months and then become a teacher there if she liked it, she said.

Despatches from Chicago said that Miss Weldon reached that city a week ago and immediately sought refuge in the convent. After inquiring for a nun now in Rome, she told the sisters she had come for "rest and spiritual consolation." She was told that she might rest at the convent, and accepted the invitation. Miss Weldon appeared greatly distressed and spent most of the time in her room, it is said.

LYING ON THE BED.
The body was found lying across a bed in the room. All of the gas jets in the room were turned on full. It is believed that death came sometime Monday afternoon, telegraphic advices stated.

Miss Weldon was about 30 years old. She has been in the bay region during the last nine years, coming here from Los Angeles, where her parents live. She had been a teacher in the public schools of San Francisco for eight years before obtaining a transfer to Oakland in 1921.

ASK THE TRIBUNE Bureau Information

"How can you get to Lakeside Highlands to see the exposition of homes, without an auto?"

Take the "E" car to the corner of Park boulevard and Mandana, walk through the large iron gates there and on up through Trestle Glen. The exposition of homes to which you refer will include several of the new homes in the upper part of this addition. There will be a large sign there, so you cannot help but find the place.

"What is the origin of the name 'California'?"

It is derived from the Spanish words "calida fornax," meaning a hot furnace.

"What is the sun's distance from the earth?"

Approximately 93,000,000 miles.

"What is the moon's distance from the earth?"

Approximately 240,000 miles.

The TRIBUNE Information Bureau will answer all questions of a general nature, except school or legal problems, debates, trade and firm names and queries as to the time of day.

The bureau is open every day except Sunday from 8 a. m. to 3 p. m.

If answers are desired by mail stamps must be enclosed. Quickest results can be obtained by telephoning to the bureau. If you have any problems of a general nature to solve, ask The TRIBUNE Information Bureau, Lakeside 8000.

House Legal Grist

Totals 13,711 Bills

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—More than 13,000 bills—13,711 by actual count—of all sorts and descriptions were introduced in the house since the 67th Congress went to work in April, 1921. Clerks checking up today found that of this number, 1057 were passed.

In the 66th Congress 15,482 bills were presented and 734 of these became laws.

"Anybody can throw a bill into the hopper," said a veteran legislator, "but it takes a wise man to put it through the mill."

ALLEGED SLAYER LIBERATED.
MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 27.—Edgar C. Prady of Chicago, held in the Bode county jail charged with the murder of his wife, Dorothy, last February, in a local hotel, was granted liberty on $50,000 bond by Circuit Judge E. C. Davis at West Palm Beach.

John D. Tells Effort to Land His First Job

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Sixty-seven years ago a wholesale produce commissioner told a 16-year-old boy who had been searching for employment for six weeks in Cleveland to "come back after dinner and we'll see what you can do."

At Pocantico Hills, the Rockefeller estate, yesterday John D. Rockefeller celebrated the sixty-seventh anniversary of that incident—his first regular job, which was bookkeeping.

During the morning Rockefeller attended to his correspondence. He then played a game of golf, a foursome of nine holes, in which his side won. Later he went for an automobile ride.

Mrs. John D. Rockefeller Jr., his daughter-in-law, entertained a few friends at luncheon, at which the financier recounted incidents in his search for a job.

"I wasn't discouraged during the search," Rockefeller explained. "I never thought of obstacles and I was already at work—looking for work."

The first three months of his first job, Rockefeller said, paid him $50.

"Fatty" Back From Trip to Orient

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 27.—Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle, former film star, who went to the Orient for a rest after he was acquitted of manslaughter in connection with the death of Virginia Rappe in San Francisco, arrived here last night on the steamship President Madison.

Arbuckle said that he had cut short a stay in Japan to board the President Madison at Yokohama. He declared that his visit in the Orient had convinced him that California was a good place to live.

Fellow passengers said that he had made himself popular on the voyage.

DRIVER UNHURT AS FAST TRAIN DESTROYS TRUCK

CINCINNATI, Sept. 27.—"And that is all there is to it," said Blair Runyan, employee of the Ohio state highway commission, as he lit a cigarette and walked away.

In twenty minutes the remains of what was once a five-ton automobile truck were cleared from the Pennsylvania tracks and the New York flyer proceeded on its way.

"Some persons are born lucky," mused the engineer. "Here is a fellow in a truck hit by a train going 65 miles an hour and not a scratch."

The motor truck which Runyan was driving was hit by the train when at Kings Mills, Ohio, yesterday. The engine of the truck was thrown more than 200 feet and the truck, filled with gravel, was dragged a half mile, while the engineer made frantic efforts to stop the train.

Instead of finding Runyan's body, as they expected, the train crew found him on the cow-catcher of the engine uninjured. "Thanks for the free ride, old top," said Runyan, as passengers and trainmen crew rubbed their eyes.

Fan Is Protection Against Mosquitoes

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—If you are subjected to boring mosquitoes a home remedy is offered which tests have proven is more effective than swatting and other methods of extermination.

When bothered in your bedroom at night, remove a screen from the window, place an electric fan inside the room about six feet from the window facing it, and turn on the current.

The stiff breeze will draw the mosquitoes into its path and will be too strong for them to repel. They will be blown from the room and will be unable to fight their way back against the air current.

in a short time the entire room will be cleared of the insects.

A new use for Lux-dishwashing

Thousands of women are washing their dishes this way—and ridding their hands for good of that three-times-a-day-in-the-dishpan-look

INTO the dishpan three times every day —washing with harsh soap—naturally your hands redden and grow coarse.

Don't let them show tell-tale traces of dishwashing.

Wash your dishes with Lux. It gets the china sparklingly clean and it preserves the softness, the delicate texture of your skin.

Women themselves discovered this use for Lux. Women who for years had been getting such satisfaction from Lux for silks and woollens tried it for washing dishes.

Thousands of letters have come in to us saying that Lux suds leave your china beautifully clean and at no cost to your hands, and asking us why we never mentioned it.

Lux contains no free alkali or any other harmful ingredient. It won't redden or roughen the hands. The Lux suds are as mild and pure as a fine toilet soap.

Start using Lux today—just one tablespoon to a pan. A single package does 44 dishwashings—all the dishes for more than two weeks. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

"Y" FUND DRIVE FALLS SHORT OF $50,000 GOAL SET

Leaders Pleased With Showing Made, They Say at Final Meeting.

The "Y" appeal netted $31,518. This was the total figure announced at the close of the campaign last night.

The goal had been set at $50,000, but the campaign committee, headed by R. A. Lee, announced that it was highly pleased with the result.

Many of the individual workers are continuing in a "mop up" campaign, getting in touch with prospects not seen during the intensive campaign. In this way a large part of the deficit is expected to be covered.

Leaf paid high tribute to the workers at the closing luncheon yesterday. "While we did not get the amount we set out to get, there are many compensations for our effort. We have found deeper and truer friendships. We have become better acquainted. We have done our bit for a splendid cause, and we are happier for it," he said.

Leaf expressed appreciation to the newspapers which have so generously contributed news space to the campaign.

The total subscriptions turned in the final day amounted to $31,518. R. C. Lyon's division turned in $1214, the largest amount of the closing day. "B" Wells turned over the admiral's hat.

Madame Dorothy Reagen, alto, soprano, gave a series of songs as a closing feature of the campaign. Clara Darimon was accompanist.

Bouquets were presented to Miss Mildred Randolph, who accompanied Eugene Blanchard in leading the community singing and to Mrs.

Here Are Judges Chosen For News Photo Contest

The big photo contest is on! Today is the opening day of the competition, designed to encourage Eastbay amateur photographers.

Here are the five judges who will pick the winning Eastbay news photos in the final contest.

H. S. CULVER. Culver is chairman of the photographic section of the Oakland Art Association. He is one of the leading authorities in the Eastbay on the subject of photography.

He is well known, by name and reputation at least, to the majority of the more advanced camera enthusiasts in this great district.

J. W. GARTHWAITE. Besides being an officer of the Oakland Bank, Garthwaite is noted for his amateur work in camera-craft. His name is also well known to most amateur photographers throughout the bay region.

C. M. HARRIS. A substantial business man of San Francisco, where he is president of the C. M. Harris Company, Harris is an Alameda resident.

He is another amateur expert whose amateur work is well known in the Eastbay and beyond, and who is intimately familiar from the photographers' standpoint with the district to be covered by the TRIBUNE contest.

He is a member of the photographic section of the Oakland Art Association, of which H. S. Culver is chairman.

SIDNEY V. WEBB. Webb, who is a well-known photographer of Berkeley and Oakland, will bring to the task of judging the entries in the TRIBUNE contest professional skill and the professional point of view.

PHOTOGRAPH EDITOR, OAKLAND TRIBUNE. The photos which these judges will select, when the contest ends 30 days from today, to win the valuable prizes listed in the adjoining column, will be those which excel in the following particulars:

1. Subject matter. This is to be judged from the point of view, not of art, but of news interest. What the judges will look for will be interesting scenes, incidents and personal touches that will make the beholder sit up and look—and then will make him laugh, weep, gasp or marvel. In other words, news photos. All subjects must be from the Eastbay district.

2. Clarity, or sharpness of the photograph.

3. Arrangement, sometimes called "grouping," of the elements or details that go to make up the picture. The "arrangement" that most graphically "gets over" the idea or point of the picture, stands the best chance.

Following the contest all pictures found acceptable will be published in the daily magazine section of the TRIBUNE.

Contestants will send one contact print AND THE NEGATIVE. The latter is necessary that we may make our own newspaper enlargement. Negatives will be returned if stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent.

Address all entries to Photo Editor, Oakland TRIBUNE. Description of photos must accompany entries. If a portrait, the name of subject must be given, with address. If a scenic, location must be stated. If a novelty, description and location must be given.

Supreme Court Rules on Primary

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26.—The State Supreme Court yesterday handed down an opinion holding that blank spaces must be left on general election ballots, equal to the number of places to be filled, and also holding that the words "majority candidate" shall not appear on the ballot. The opinion was handed down in a test case which was brought in order to procure an interpretation of the direct primary law.

The Secret of Good Health

When Nature requires assistance, she will not be slow in conveying to you an intimation of the fact. Decline of energy, inability to sleep well, headache, biliousness, constipation, a general sluggishness of mind and body and any sign of digestive "unrest" should impel you to seek the aid of a reliable medicine without delay. There is no better—no surer—no safer—than this proven remedy.

Charm of Motherhood

THERE are many homes once childless that now are blessed with healthy, happy children, because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored the mother to a healthy, normal physical condition.

The following letters give the experience of two young women and prove the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in such cases.

Park Rapids, Minn.—"I have taken your medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—when I was a girl for pains, and before and after my marriage. I now have a sweet little baby boy, and will send you his picture. My sisters also take your medicine and find it a great help; and I recommend it to those who suffer before their babies are born."—Mrs. Wm. JOHNSON, Box 155, Park Rapids, Minn.

Kutztown, Pa.—"I wish every woman who wants children would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has done so much for me. My baby is almost a year old now and is the picture of health. She walked at eleven months and is trying to use her little tongue. She can say some words real nice. I am sending you her picture. I shall be thankful as long as I live that I found such a wonderful medicine for my troubles."—Mrs. CHARLES A. MERTZ, Kutztown, Pa.

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 27, 1922.

NO. 89.

PAGEANT TO END IN DANCE OF TROPICS

Distinctive in the group of striking dances to be featured in the "Merry Whirl of 1922" tomorrow, Friday and Saturday evenings will be the South Sea Moon, which is to be the concluding number of the pageant.

Austin Sperry in the role of Kamakahi, a singer, and Mrs. Walter H. Leimert as Lilakao, a dancer, will have the support of a group which has been organized by Mrs. E. P. Legare and Mrs. Fletcher Ames. In the number will be Anne Langdon, Jane Langdon, Winifred Davis, Virginia Willoughby, Valma Kelly, Marguerite Adams, Betty Bibbins, Anita Glass, Katherine Boole, Liefje Legare, Ione Graham, Elizabeth Partiani, Noelle Beatty, Anne Watson, Marjorie Sanborn, Delpha Kitchell, Gertrude Toles, Orril Bryant, Winifred McNally, Dorothy Diggle, Marian Wellendorf, Gertrude Landrum, Ellen Sharp, Helen Eldridge, and Merle Franneder.

Captain Percival Fielding, and Miss Anna Ayala, who has been a star dancer in several of the Parthenae productions at the University of California, will dance an Apache dance in the street scene episode. Another stellar attraction in that scene will be the Argentine tango danced by Alice May Marvin and Felicitos Eduardo Gonzalez.

Captain Stanley Stokes of the United States Coast Guard and his squad of Shriners will appear in one of the episodes, presenting the wooden soldier act from Chauve Souris, the Russian vaudeville hit in New York this fall. In the parade, besides Captain Stokes, will be C. W. Novak, A. I. Smith, C. C. Norris, Wm. Harder, W. O. Nelson, F. L. Ingersoll, J. L. DuFranc, Joe Khourian, A. E. Wilford, C. W. Johnson, H. J. Lee, Wm. D. Cole, F. W. Harlamert, S. J. Collins, and W. T. Jordan.

Miss Virginia Marvin will appear as the premiere danseuse of the Ballet Russe, from the Imperial opera, a much anticipated number in the Russian episode in which Mrs. Joseph R. Knowland will appear as Catherine of Russia.

Edna Wallace Hopper, darling of comic opera goers of past decades, also will be present to play an important part in the "happy ending" of the fete. Miss Hopper's particular work in an unannounced feature of the program, but those who have reveled in her beauty and cleverness before times know that there is to be something worth while.

Wesley Barry, of moving picture fame, is to add to the gaiety of the affair by a visit which he promises for Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when he will be on the zone, the guest of Mrs. Oliver Kehrein, chairman. Mrs. A. J. Coogan and the other women who have worked to make that feature of the fete a success. Barry's visit will be a brief one, but a real one, and he chose Saturday that he might have opportunity to greet more boys and girls.

BERKELEY MAN TO SPEAK.

Bob Sproul of Berkeley will be the speaker of the day at tomorrow's luncheon of the Oakland Rotary club at the Hotel Oakland. Music will be furnished by John Becker's saxophone sextette.

A few drops rubbed into a damp cloth, applied to tables or chairs, then polished with a dry cotton cloth, makes them clean and lustrous. At your dealer.

SERIES OF TALKS ON MUSIC COMING

Mrs. Elizabeth Stuart Brown will be presented in a series of four lecture-recitals next month in the Ebell clubhouse under the auspices of the University of California Extension Division. Mrs. Brown is a distinguished musical theorist who is making her second appearance on the coast. The lecture dates are scheduled as follows: Thursday evening, October 5, "Johann Sebastian Bach"; Thursday evening, October 12, "Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart"; Thursday evening, October 19, "Franz Schubert"; Thursday evening, October 26, "Franz Peter Schubert."

Miss Marie Millette, pupil of Anton Hoff, conductor of the Metropolitan Opera Company in New York, and of Yvette Guilbert, will give the song illustrations to supplement the lectures on October 5 and 12. The Beethoven lecture will be illustrated by selections on the piano. Mrs. Marie Partridge Price, lyric soprano, has been chosen as the soloist at the concluding lecture.

Since her return from abroad, Mrs. Brown has been widely acclaimed in the cultural world of Boston and larger eastern cities. In Leipzig she was a pupil of Professor Robert Teichmüller, head of piano instruction in the Conservatory of Music. She also studied with Professor Carl Smulders, eminent Dutch composer and pianist, of the Royal Conservatory of Liege. She followed her studies in the theory of music with Dr. Gustav Schreck, cantor in the Thomas School in Leipzig, where for twenty-seven years Bach was cantor.

Mrs. Brown was a reader by permit in the British Museum, following a course of readings by Sir Herbert Perry, head of the Royal College of Music, London. Her appearance in Oakland will be of particular interest to musicians and to men and women interested in cultural subjects.

Fire House Before El Cerrito Board

EL CERRITO, Sept. 27.—A special meeting of the board of trustees of El Cerrito will be held this evening for the purpose of going over the plans and specifications for the proposed fire house presented by Contractor A. L. Bigley at last Friday's meeting.

California has 22 persons to the square mile.

SHIPYARD COMPANY TO REORGANIZE

Reorganization of the Union Construction and Dry Dock company which has a shipbuilding plant on the Key Route fill, was heralded today with the filing of new corporation papers with County Clerk George Gross.

The papers filed were a copy as the firm is now incorporating in the state of Nevada. The capitalization was placed at $500,000 with shares at $100 each and the directors were named as W. W. Johnson, three shares; H. G. Peake, four shares; J. R. Murphy, one share; Thomas R. White, one share; Charles W. White, one share. Papers on file with the county clerk show that the company was originally incorporated in California on April 18, 1918, for $2,000,000 under the name Union Industrial Works. On October 17, same year, the name was changed to Union Construction company.

Huge New Gas Container Goes in Operation Today

The new 6,000,000 cubic-foot gas holder of the Pacific Gas and Electric company was put into service today. This mammoth container has been under construction for several months at the foot of Castro street, Oakland.

John A. Britton, vice president and general manager of the company, assisted by Wigginton E. Creed, president; A. F. Hockenbeamer, treasurer, and Willis Yard, vice-president in charge of gas construction and operation, turned the valves which admitted gas into the new holder at noon. Britton recalled the Christmas eve in 1876, when he and other officials of the company anticipated a gas output of 100,000 cubic feet of gas from the plant then located at the foot of Washington street.

MINE RELIEF FUND GIFTS REACH $1802

The amount of money raised for the stricken families of the Agonaut mine disaster victims has reached a total of $1802.25, it was announced today.

Harold Katchinsky is chairman of the committee of Oakland businessmen which is carrying on the work of raising funds to relieve the widows and orphans of the men who lost their lives at Jackson.

The following contributions were received today: A. Friend, $1; employees of American Photo Playing Co., by George B. Mowry, $22.25; Sons and Daughters of Washington, $20. A letter to the editor of the TRIBUNE accompanied the contribution of the Sons and Daughters of Washington.

All contributions are acknowledged in the TRIBUNE as they are received. The money is forwarded, through the TRIBUNE, to Mrs. Mary Warrington, president of the Amador County chapter of the American Red Cross.

Movie Director's Hearing Resumes

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—Sensational charges and counter charges were expected to feature the hearing of Alan Alexander, motion picture director and former manager of Gladys Walton, film star, when his preliminary hearing before Justice Howard R. Hinshaw was resumed today.

Alexander is accused in a complaint issued by the district attorney's office with having embezzled $1600 from the motion picture actress.

He denied the charges and declared that the action against him was instituted because of jealousy when he became reconciled with his wife.

According to the story told on the witness stand by Miss Walton some time ago, Alexander as her manager, drew her salary for several months with the understanding that he was to invest the money in bonds for her. Instead of purchasing the bonds, the film star claims he appropriated the money for his own use and has failed to return it to her.

Mayor Talks For Water and Power Act
"There is nothing hostile or hurtful to any just rights of hydroelectric corporations in California's Water and Power Act," declared Louis Edgett, mayor of Berkeley, in an address before the Scots at luncheon today on the proposed constitutional amendment to place state credit behind community development of water and power.

"The power corporations, on the contrary, are left free to pursue their separate enterprises wholly unobstructed," Bartlett continued. "The reason the power corporations are fighting the amendment is because it will interfere with their announced program for the next ten years of $1,000,000,000 of hydro-electric development in this state—a program that will place California's undeveloped water-power in their grasp and which will give them complete economic and political control of the people, from whom they can gouge monopoly profits forever."

BURGLED TAKE GEMS.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 27.—Burglars found an open window at the home of C. C. Bacon, 1411 Pearl street, last night. The entered and stole jewelry, the value of $20. James Baugh, 640 Pacific avenue, reported that some one had stolen a tricycle from his home.

Veteran Railroader Married 50 Years

ALAMEDA, Sept. 27.—Lydia W. Morse and John Fielding played together as small children, they went to school together and then they were married. Sunday they celebrated their golden wedding by going quietly to church, and it was not until yesterday that friends knew the event.

Fielding is better known as "Dad" Fielding to his many friends in Alameda. He is a veteran Southern Pacific man, having been recently retired. He is an officer in Alameda Lodge of Elks.

The two, who live at 3220 Briggs avenue, were married in New York September 24, 1872. Two years later they came to Alameda. Fielding was the first conductor on the Alameda-Santa Cruz narrow gauge road.

Improvers to Hold Dollar Day Luncheon

ALAMEDA, Sept. 27.—The annual dollar day luncheon of the Alameda Women's Improvement club will take place at Neptune Beach October 4. Final plans for the affair were made at the meeting of the club in the clubrooms of the Washington school this afternoon. Mrs. A. T. Spence will act as toastmaster. The luncheon will cost a dollar, which must have been earned by the club member. Each one must tell how the money was secured.

Japanese Ruler's U. S. Tour Indicated

TOKYO, Sept. 27.—(By International News Service).—While no confirmation was obtainable today of the statement made in Vancouver by Viscount Matsudaira that the prince regent of Japan may visit the United States next spring, it was learned from the Imperial household that the regent's wedding planned for next May will not take place before fall. This was taken here to indicate that such a trip as outlined by Matsudaira, who is master of ceremonies in the Imperial household here, is being considered.

Popular Couple Married in First M. E. Church

The wedding of Miss Florence Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Adams of Edgewood avenue, Glenview, and Douglas Matthey took place Tuesday evening, September 19, at 6 o'clock in the First Methodist church, Twenty-fourth and Broadway, Rev. John W. Stephens officiating. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Bessie Beatty Rowland.

Miss Dorothy Wells was maid of honor, and Miss Barbara Sherman, bridesmaid. A fraternity brother of the bridegroom, Roy Sparrow, served as best man with Stanford Olsen as usher.

The bride wore a gown of white satin crepe de meteor heavily beaded in crystal and silver with pearl ornaments. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias, orchids and lilies of the valley.

The bride's attendants were gowned in pink and gold with arm bouquets of roses to harmonize.

The altar was arranged in autumn foliage and bloom.

A wedding breakfast was later served at the Key Route Inn.

The bride couple have left for a motor trip throughout California.

After October 15, they will be at home at 202 Lakeside Boulevard.

Mrs. Anna Lampkin and her three children will move from Berlin, where they are to spend the winter.

Joseph Lampkin, violinist, will study at one of the big conservatories there while Regina and William Lampkin continue their studies in private schools in languages and music. The family will remain abroad for some time.

Mrs. Ernest Mendenhall and Mrs. R. M. Sims were hostesses Saturday afternoon to fourteen of the younger set, who are to participate in one of the episodes of the Baby Hospital Pageant Thursday evening. A final dress rehearsal of the pageant will be held this evening at the Municipal auditorium. The hostesses entertained at the Mt. Diablo country club with a swimming party, a supper and later a rehearsal of their respective parts was held.

MILLS GRADUATE BECOMES BRIDE.

Jack C. Nicholas and Miss Mary

MRS. DOUGLAS MATTHEY, a bride whose marriage comes as a surprise to a host of friends this side of the bay. (Oakland Art Studio.)

Hamilton Graham were united in marriage Monday evening by Superior Judge A. F. St. Sure. The bride is the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. George G. Graham of Santa Barbara, where she has been residing with her mother. She is a graduate of Mills College, and has many friends in the bay region. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Davis Nicholas of the Park Gate Apartments, 250 Grand avenue, this city, where the marriage took place in the presence of relatives. Young Nicholas served overseas during the world war. He was attached to the 27th New York division and was seriously wounded in the drive on the Hindenburg line. Mr. and Mrs.

Jack Nicholas will reside at 250 Grand avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brooks entertained a dozen friends at a dinner party Saturday evening, September 16, at their home on Eighty-second avenue, and among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pye, B. C. Hancock, J. A. Coulter, Henry Bethel, Mrs. G. A. Hutchinson, Mrs. Margaret Bethel and Miss Olive Behrman.

TRINITY CHURCH BAZAAR SALE.

The Ladies of Trinity Episcopal church in Telegraph avenue will hold their sale and market on November 17 and 18 in one of the local halls of this city. Their friends are requested to remember the sale in the course of their holiday shopping.

CARD PARTY FOR CHARITY.

Mrs. Henry Hart Leonard of Boulevard Way will give a card party for the West Oakland Home Friday, September 29. There will be seventeen tables of bridge. Mrs. Curtora of San Jose and Mrs. Nat Friend will pour tea. Mrs. William Amann, president of the charity, and Mrs. Welcome E. Pites, chairman of the Doll Booth, will assist in receiving.

Miss Margaret Pardee, Miss Lucille Burke, Miss Helen Pites and Mrs. Marion Davis Higgins will assist in serving.

Miss Dorothy White will leave October 4 on the Matsushima for the Hawaiian Islands where she will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. George Loring Keeney of Maui.

S. F. Man Sentenced to San Quentin Term

WILLOWS, Sept. 27.—George Reinecker, San Francisco, was sentenced to San Quentin here yesterday for attempting to rob an Oakland garage last June. Reinecker, 32, was a member of the Barker-Karpis gang and was arrested after a series of robberies and kidnappings.

for probation. While officers investigated the case he was released on $2000 bonds supplied by his brother. Reinecker disappeared and nothing was heard of him until Monday when he attempted to dispose of an automobile officers believe was stolen.

Women Will Aid Indian Welfare Work

By EDNA B. KINARD.

California will contribute $10,000 in the coming two years to the work of the Indian welfare department of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. H. A. Atwood of Riverside is chairman of this department, which is attracting national attention by its efforts on behalf of the remnants of the redman in various parts of the country. A group of Californians who have watched with interest the development of the work under the leadership of Mrs. Atwood have together subscribed a fund of $5,000 annually for two years to be used in sending an expert to survey reservations to determine, without prejudice, what the federal government is doing for its wards; how the Indian welfare work is being conducted and what further education can be given to fit the Indian for full citizenship, which is the aim of the committee.

While California is leading in Indian welfare work in the general federation, it is interesting to learn that Mrs. A. B. Griffith, chairman of the department on kindergartens, reports that this state leads all others in development of the kindergarten system, with a gain of 736 children enrolled in this class during one year. The total gain of kindergarten children enrolled throughout the country, according to Mrs. Griffith, is 37,811.

A survey of European economic conditions will be presented by Dr. Charles L. Kloss before the Business and Professional Women's club tomorrow night. Several members of the clubwomen will assemble in the Broadway quarters for the October dinner when the clergyman-lecturer will tell of what he saw during the several months he spent abroad this summer. His report will be rendered by the newly organized choral section, under the leadership of Miss Zanette W. Potter.

The Merchants' Exchange is recognizing the position which women are taking in the commercial life of the city and this month has extended to the Business and Professional Women's club the courtesy of the executive board meetings with the privilege of the floor. The women's organizations, through their boards of directors, have sent letters of appreciation to the group, pledging co-operation and promising attendance.

Mrs. David Smart will be the speaker before the home department of the Manzanita Parent-Teacher association meeting tomorrow with Mrs. T. Crawford, 2338 East Twenty-seventh street. She will review the Wright enforcement law. An informal tea will follow. Members of the association are urged to attend.

The first community dance under the auspices of the mothers is scheduled for Friday evening, October 6, in the school auditorium.

A preliminary announcement is made that Mrs. Kathleen Norris will be a speaker before Oakland on October 13. While Mrs. Norris is not directly speaking on the Wright enforcement law, her lecture, "Another Side of It," is given as argument in its favor. Because the center is pledged to listen to both sides of every question, a speaker has been invited to present reasons why the Wright act should not be written into state law.

Other legislative bills upon which the people of California will be called to vote in November will be reviewed before the center on Friday, October 27. Mrs. Anna Sullivan, assemblywoman from Berkeley, and Miss Martha Ijams will be the speakers, according to Mrs. Charles Seccombe, chairman of program.

PUBLISHER'S TOPIC IS PAPERS

The policies that are to govern the Oakland Post-Enquirer under the ownership of William R. Hearst were described by its new president and publisher, Charles S. Young, yesterday at a luncheon of the Oakland Ad Club, held in the Hotel Oakland.

Young likened a modern newspaper to a three-story house.

"The news and editorial departments may be called the first floor, for it is they that support the rest of the structure," he said. "Not until you have built this floor truly and firmly can you venture to build a second floor, which is circulation. Care must be taken that its dimensions are coincident with those of the first floor. And not until you have truly and firmly built the second floor on top of the first can you venture to put on the third floor, which is advertising. And its dimensions, also, must be coincident with those of the first two floors."

Some of the qualities that should enter into a successful newspaper were enumerated and described by the speaker.

The accuracy is of prime importance, he said. "Reporters and copy-readers who are persistently inaccurate should be discharged. Exaggeration should be avoided, for it is only a cheap substitute for news."

The last appearance of Charles H. Chase before the members of the Ad Club as secretary of the organization was the signal for an ovation and expressions of regret yesterday. In a brief talk Chase told the ad men that he regarded the three years he had spent as their secretary as a university education in which his tuition had been paid by them. Chase has resigned his double office as Ad Club secretary and manager of the Better Business Bureau of the organization, to enter business in San Francisco.

Frank Titos, Niles restaurant keeper, charged with failing to render aid following an automobile accident, went to trial today before a jury in Judge Lincoln S. Church's court.

The state charges that Titos, on July 5, while driving from Hayward to Niles, ran down C. M. Welch, who was walking on the highway. He stopped his machine and returned to the scene of the accident, where he stood for a few moments. He then returned to his machine and started down the highway. It is charged. The driver of another machine gave chase and overtook Titos when he attempted to turn into the Harder road, where he crashed into a fence.

Following the accident Titos made a statement in which he turned around at the Harder road and that he intended to drive back to the scene of the accident to take the injured man to the hospital.

Welch is still under the care of physicians, confined to the hospital and unable to be a witness at the trial. It was announced today by Deputy District Attorney Frank Mitchell, who is prosecuting the case, Attorney Jack Collier is defending Titos.

Sure Way to Get Rid of Blackheads

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads, that is to dissolve them.

To do this get two ounces of calomine powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a handkerchief—rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear.

Blackheads are a mixture of dust and dirt and secretions that form in the pores of the skin. The calomine powder and the water dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition.—Advertisement.

Mary Anderson To Pay Homage To Edwin Booth

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—On the stage of the Shakespeare Theater in Stratford-on-Avon next Friday, Mary Anderson, for years one of America's foremost tragediennes, will make what is probably her farewell appearance, it was announced here yesterday.

The occasion is the addition of a picture of Edwin Booth to the gallery of immortals in the famous Shakespearean Shrine. The picture is the gift of E. F. Albee to the Rotary Clubs of America.

Mrs. La Navarre, who is now Mrs. Anderson, is to appear at her own request, and her interest in Edwin Booth Day at Stratford-on-Avon is both as an actress and as personal friend of Edwin Booth.

The presentation of the picture to Mayor Archibald Flower of Stratford-on-Avon, head of the Shakespeare committee, will be made by Arch C. Klumph of Cleveland, past president of the American Rotarians.

Hundreds of devotees of Shakespeare are gathering already in the little English town for the ceremonies, many of them from London, and others from every corner of the world.

In a letter to Albee, Mary Anderson says: "It is splendid of you giving this picture; there is no 'counterfeit presentation' of him here, and you yourself will greatly enrich the collection and do honor to our greatest actor."

The duchess said that she had brought her son from Europe to place him on the Davis experimental farm of the University of California.

The duchess met her husband, Duke Henry Borwin zu Mecklenburg, nephew of the reigning grand duke, when he visited the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in 1915. His marriage to the beautiful widow took place a few months later in the east. The duke subsequently decided to rejoin his regiment, and take part in the war. He stowed away in the stokehold of a neutral liner, and thus escaped being captured by the British.

DRY AGENTS ARE CHARGED WITH EXTORTION PLOT

One Under Arrest, One Flees and Third Gains Immunity in Big Holdup.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—One prohibition agent is arrested, another has fled the city, and a third has been granted temporary immunity as the result of the uncovering of an alleged plot to fleece Sonoma county vineyardists.

Henry Myers, former deputy United States marshal, is in custody pending deposit of $5000 bail; W. W. Curtis, formerly a Berkeley police sergeant, is sought by the police, and George H. Crawford is said to have made a confession that earned him temporary immunity.

The three men are accused of extorting $10,000 from a vineyardist near Geyserville, who paid the sum in the belief that he would have free rein to ship wines and then believing that he was being "double crossed" reported the matter to the internal revenue department.

According to the evidence, the three agents, although assigned to duty in this city, went to Sonoma county, where on the night of September 13 they waited upon the vineyardist and ascertained whether any liquor was being transported.

They stopped a truck, according to the investigators, and discovered three barrels of wine. They compelled the driver to return to the winery, where he had secured the wine, and there forced the driver to pay $500 and the vineyardist a similar amount. Finally it was agreed that he would pay $10,000 for full shipping privileges.

Cantilever Shoe for Men Clammy Feet

One of the commonest of foot afflictions—and a very disagreeable one—is caused by poor circulation. And poor circulation is inevitable when you wear ordinary shoes with rigid shanks, in which your foot is held as if in a straight jacket, so that the arch-muscles grow flabby from disuse.

Free circulation impurities are carried on in the blood instead of exuded through the pores, and normal warmth and dryness of the feet is maintained.

The natural lines and flexible shank of Cantilevers allow every part of the foot and all its muscles to function like the finest mechanism—which they are.

There is no distortion, no restriction. You walk or stand with less fatigue than you would have believed possible. Foot ills disappear and you can dismiss any worry you may have had about weak arches.

The new Cantilever styles would satisfy the vainest of women.

Novel Hat Vies With Parisian Modes At Show

MISS MERNA COVINGTON, wearing a novel chapeau. It's an inverted lamp shade and is among the novel exhibits of the second annual East Bay Manufacturers' Exposition at Idora Park.

Exhibits at East Bay Manufacturers' Exposition Reveal Wide Industries.

"Thirteen hundred acres of success" will be Emeryville's contribution to the second annual East Bay Manufacturers' Exposition which opens at Idora Park, Saturday, October 14.

The eighty odd manufacturing plants in Emeryville occupy approximately 1300 acres of ground and each one of these plants will be represented in the industrial show.

An entire section has been reserved by the Emeryville Industries Association, and its members are eagerly bidding for exhibit space in this reservation.

Servicemen were crystallized at an informal luncheon of the association served in the cafeteria of the Y. M. C. A. building at Emeryville yesterday.

"Emeryville will be represented 100 per cent," was the assurance of A. MacKenzie of the Pacific Manufacturing Book Company and president of Emeryville Industries Association. "There is not a manufacturing plant in Emeryville that is not a big success, and we're for this exposition strong. We expect Emeryville to lead all the way."

John W. Phillips, chairman of the manufacturers' bureau of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, which is looking after the big exhibit to be made by the Chamber of Commerce in presenting the industrial resources of the Eastbay, explained the position of that organization in the exposition. He told the manufacturers that this year's exposition was the biggest thing they could get behind this year.

Notices to Vacate Street Are Served

Now that the superior court has granted its final decree of condemnation of property to allow the extension of Seventeenth street, the city's street department today started serving 30-day notices on the property owners, who will vacate immediately.

The property will be sold at auction November 10. It includes 2 apartments and 6 residences.

PENSION WON BY 52 YEARS ON S. P.

Henry Engelbright of Oakland has just completed 52 years of active service in the employ of the Southern Pacific and has been "graduated" with 37 others to the Honor Roll of pensioners.

Engelbright is a master car repairer and has worked for the company for 52 years, 10 months. He helped to install and try out the first air brake that was sent to the West by George Westinghouse, in 1871. Prior to this time all braking was done by hand.

The 37 employees just pensioned by the company brings the number of employees returned on pensions since the railroad company established the system in 1903, up to 1900 employees. Some of the men recently retired are Oaklanders.

Besides Engelbright they are Eugene L. Dungan, train baggage man, 41 years, 7 months; Mark H. Comstock, carpenter, 35 years, 5 months; James H. Jackson, boiler-maker, 34 years, 4 months; William A. Landis, towerman, 33 years, 7 months; Frank M. Black, dining car steward, 23 years, 9 months; William J. Skinner, engineer, 22 years, 11 months.

Three of the men, Henry C. Thiels, machinist, Sacramento shops; Engelbright and James Jefferson, engineer, Empalme (S. P. lines in Mexico) have service with the company of fifty years or more.

TO GIVE DANCE.

RICHMOND, Sept. 27.—Plans are completed by Beacon Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, for the dancing party to be held on Saturday evening, October 7, in Masonic hall. The DeMolay orchestra will furnish music for the dancing, which is to start at 8:30 o'clock. The committee in charge of the affair is headed by Miss Bessie Wood.

The first lifeboat was launched in 1790 at Shields' England.

PATERNITY BLOOD TEST IS REFUSED

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 27.—The ordeal was over for Mrs. Augusta Tiernan today. With her husband and her baby—exhibit A—whose parentage was the issue in the Tiernan-Poulin paternity hearing, Mrs. Tiernan was resting in Chicago.

The three left South Bend shortly after the close of the sensational hearing yesterday to meet Dr. Albert Abrams, California surgeon. Professor Tiernan hoped to persuade the great expert to make a private test to determine if he was the father of his "son." But Dr. Abrams refused. The surgeon stated that he would willingly appear in court and make a public analysis of the blood of Tiernan and the infant, but he would not perform a private test.

Tiernan and his wife and the baby waited to hear the decision of the court, expected Saturday. Tiernan stated they would make no appeal from the court's findings if the case went against them, but indicated that perjury charges may be filed against Harry Poulin, who, it is charged, is the father of the babe. Such charges would result in a re-trial, attorneys said.

WEDS IN HAWAII

RICHMOND, Sept. 27.—Miss Caroline Bedwell, formerly a teacher in the Richmond public schools, was married Monday in Honolulu to Clarence Albert Brown of Hawaii. It was announced yesterday through a telegram received by Miss Bedwell's mother, Mrs. Jackson L. Bedwell of Kingsburg. Mrs. Bedwell formerly lived in Richmond.

Wife Alleges Her Husband Confessed

The alleged confession by Harry R. Hopps, a salesman in Oakland for Tillman and Bendel Company, wholesale grocers of San Francisco, that he had been untrue to her is cited by Mrs. Ruth Hopps of Berkeley, in a suit for divorce. Mrs. Hopps says the confession was made last July after their separation, which is given as May 18. During their married life, she says the wife, Hopps was "rebellious, moody and irritable" because he was called upon to help in the household, she being employed also as a stenographer.

When they lived in Burlingame, Mrs. Hopps says she underwent an operation, then took a rest with her folks, wealthy ranchers in Yolo county, and returned still very weak, but her husband became angry because she did not have the meals cooked for him.

During the Civil war 30,108 Union and 40,132 Confederate prisoners died in prison camps.

Club to Accept Portable Schools

Members of the Columbian Park Improvement club decided last night to accept the offer of the board of education to erect portable schools for the children in the district and accept transportation for the older children. The club also received a communication from the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railroad's announcing that a suitable station or waiting room will be erected at the end of the K car line extension.

Plans were made at the meeting for a basket picnic to be held next Sunday in the oak grove on Admiralty way. The arrangements are being made by M. T. Ayres.

LODGE TO GIVE WHIST PARTY

RICHMOND, Sept. 27.—Alexander Lodge, Daughters of St. George, have made plans for a whist party to be held soon. Mrs. Annie Prowse presided. The business session was followed by serving of refreshments.

The Baby Hospital was organized to care for babies and children under school age whose guardians were able to pay little or nothing for hospital care. Help this worthy charity by going to the MERRY WHIRL OF 1922, September 28, 29 and 30, in the Auditorium. General Admission $1.00.

JIMMY DUFFY WINS ALL THE WAY FROM BARNEY ADAIR

OAKS WILL PRESENT STRONGEST POSSIBLE LINEUP IN SERIES WITH THE SEALS AND TIGERS

WELTERWEIGHT ADAIR MAKES SORRY SHOWING AGAINST LOCAL FIGHTER

Joe Azevedo Holds Bud Soules Even; Eddie Macey Is Whipped by Jimmy Callahan; Grunin and Eddie Landon Box a Draw

By BOB SHAND

James Hyman Gold Duffy, who claims only the championship of Broom's gymnasium, presented Barney Adair, self-styled champion of Ireland with a new lease on his life last evening. The Messrs Adair and Duffy were the main events at the hit-fest staged at the Auditorium and the gents who sat close up avowed and averred that Duffy could have drummed up a job for his favorite undertaker had he tried real hard. Jimmy smacked Barney with everything but Harold Broom and at times he looked Haroldward as though he intended using his chief second for an unusual purpose. Adair entered the ring wearing a loud green sweater and the look of a dog headed by Tim Flynn gave it a wonderful reception. Poor Barney thought the reception was in his honor and bowed gracefully but Mr. Sweater was the bird that got the applause.

Duffy got his usual reception, three round cheers with the reverse English while the more conservative customers advised Adair to drop James into the side pocket, lambast him with a block of bungs, knock him for a flock of goals and generally treat him roughly. Duffy smiled leniently. This bird never gets sore as long as the medal man is his friend and he can look at Simpson squarely in the optic. Barney started nicely by forcing Jimmy to the ropes and hitting him on the neck. That ended the hitting as far as Adair was concerned as the young man who left Ireland when he was but two years of age was on the receiving end of the balance of the evening. It was suggested to Frank Taber, owner manager of Adair, that he should have let Barney stick in the old country until he was more mature and learned something about fighting. Outside of that it was the worst night event that has been offered here in some time. Adair is not even a good preliminary boy on his showing last night. He had absolutely nothing.

Simpson Sorry, But Will Make Amends.

Interviewed after the battle, Matchmaker Simpson admitted it was a terrible affair, but "What's a guy going to do?" he asked, and then explained: "This Adair held Travis Davis to a draw in Seattle two weeks ago and Davis is champion of the Coast." He held Tedder even twice and defeated some good boys in the east. His reputation was O. K. I'm sorry but drop around next week and see Cliff Kremer and Jack Reeves with Frankie McCann and Billy Wallace on the side. I'll give the boys something special at the next show to make up for the Adair fiasco.

Outside of the main event the doings were dandy and the customers had no complaint to offer. Joe Azevedo took the prize, having made the chin from Bud Soules and by all the rules of boxing he should have gracefully retired from the picture. But Joe is far from being thrifty. He landed the heavyweights Soules tried to connect with his left but Azevedo beat him to the second punch every time. There is no more sturdy writer in the game than this Azevedo boy. He took everything that Soules had to offer and he was stronger at the finish than his opponent. Lucky for some of the present crop of welters that the game is limited to four rounds or Azevedo would clean up most of them. The bout was called a draw which was plenty fair enough.

Jimmy Callahan Too Strong for Eddie Macey.

Eddie Macey lost to Jimmy Callahan and he lost all the way. The little Marine is strong as a bull and after socking Eddie at close range he held him safe in the clinches. Callahan, or Kewpie Callender, as he used to be known, is a greatly improved boxer and looks like the logical opponent for Morgan or Lynch in the near future. He knocked out the tough Al Walker in two rounds at Vallejo last week.

Al Grunin and Eddie Landon stepped four interesting rounds to a draw. Grunin took an early lead, but Landon came back strong in the fourth to even up matters. Frankie McCann and Joe Leopold broke even in a slugging match in which both boys took a world of punishment. McCann as usual did not start until the second round and he slowed up again in the fourth to enable Leopold to break even.

Ernie Perrin Makes Good in First Start Here.

Ernie Perrin made good in his first start when he took a free swinging bout from Jimmy Storcy. The latter conceded weight, height and reach and was knocked down twice. Storcy got up without a count the first time he went down in the fourth round, but the second time he spun around and took the full count.

Betting Is Barred From Chicago Track
CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—The Illinois Jockey Club has barred betting for the Hawthorne meeting starting Saturday and is on record in a letter to members that no text case will be made. Several additional races were postponed yesterday, and it was announced that full programs already were assured. The great gelding Exterminator will be sent over the mile and a quarter route a Hawthorne today, and on his time will be built ideas of the "speed" of the track.

GIANTS WANT BENTLEY.
NEW YORK.—Negotiations are being carried on by the New York Giants with the Baltimore Club for Jack Bentley, the Orioles star pitcher and first baseman. One hundred thousand is said to be the price.

Homers May Feature in World Series

However, Only Thirty-five of Them Have Been Made All Told.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Because of the enormous increase in recent seasons of home run hitting, begun by Babe Ruth and emulated by every player with a pair of clear eyes and strong shoulders, followers of the game expect the coming world series to develop into a contest of long distance batting, which a study of the statistics entirely refutes.

Not that the 1922 struggle between Manhattan's town representatives may not establish an imposing and new total of four base swats, because it may, but if many home runs are hit, it will be a novelty. Neither participant is the leading club of its league in home run hitting.

The season of 1922 has been the most prolific of home runs of all times, the 1000 mark being whizzed past by the sluggers of both leagues as the autumn leaves began to fall. The previous record was in 1921, when 937 home runs were made in the two organizations.

Yet, in all the world's series games that have been played, only 55 home runs have been made and if the computation is made on the basis of the number of games, the other league in "fence busting" discussions—beginning in 1905, when the brush world series evolved—only 33 circuit clouts have been clipped. And George Herman Ruth has made but one of them.

All of the 32 homers have been damaged, however, some of them accounting for games that meant winning a series.

The palm goes to J. Franklin Baker, of Trappe, Md., still with the Yankees, who became known as "home run" Baker early in this decade when, with the Philadelphia Athletics, he mailed Mathewson and Marquette of the Giants. In the last six world's series, the American League teams have made 114 runs, eight of them home runs, and the National League have made five home runs out of the 112 runs they have scored.

The probability of this series developing a new record is not remote, since a number of the "one way hitters" are on both clubs. The records of September 23 show Ruth and Bob Meusel to have been third and sixth respectively in the American League and Emil Meusel and George Kelly to have been fourth and fifth respectively in the other league in "fence busting."

Moreover Ruth is about at the top of his long hitting form. It is argued by some that had he not been kept out of the game until May 20 and then absent at intervals thereafter that he would have led his league again this year and might have broken his record of 59 last year.

No player has made more than two home runs in one game in a world's series and only three men have accomplished that. They are Pat Dougherty of the Boston Americans in 1903; Harry Hooper and Marquette of the Boston Americans in 1915 and Benny Kauff of the Giants in 1917.

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 27.—Harry Greb of Pittsburgh, American light heavyweight champion, declared here last night he was ready to fight Battling Siki, Senegalite conqueror of Georges Carpentier, "any time, anywhere, for any reasonable amount of money."

"I have had three offers already to meet Siki," Greb asserted, "and to all of them I have replied that I am ready to talk business as soon as he signs a contract."

ST. MARY'S TEAM STRONGER, MAN FOR MAN, THAN 1921 ELEVEN

STANFORD FRESHMEN HAVE WEALTH OF BACKFIELD MATERIAL; LINE IS BEING DEVELOPED

ST. MARY'S ELEVEN TAKING SHAPE WITH REMODELED LINEUP

Horrell Replaces Gallagher and Burgess Takes Place of Dunn on First Squad at California; New Men Look Good.

By DOUG. MONTELL

The St. Mary's squad of Coach Madigan has every mark of being a far stronger aggregation of gridders than was the Red and Blue last year at the same time. The Notre Dame system, after having had a year to take effect, is beginning to show results, at least in practice, and with a far better turnout completing their third week of work. The Saints are enjoying scrimmage practice three times a week with the Nevada game, at Reno, October 7, as their immediate goal. Beyond this Madigan has in mind the California game and, barring injuries, should have his squad in shape to make a strong showing against the Bruins by the second week in October. Several of the spots have been filled which were weak at the start of the season and at the present time the Saints have developed a sufficient degree of teamwork to be rated as formidable, for a small team.

Small is used in the sense that they represent a small institution and have a limited number from which to pick their team. Out of a varsity squad of thirty Madigan has assembled a line that would do credit to many a larger institution and presenting a far stronger front than did the St. Mary's line of last season. Faster ends, heavier guards, experienced tackles and a promising center go to make up as good a forward rank as could be asked for.

Red and Blue Line Appears Stronger.

Those who have not followed the development of the Red and Blue team closely would hardly recognize the eleven as being the veteran team. It is supposed to be. Many shifts have been necessary to get the desired results and at this date, ten days before their opening game, no definite line-up has been named that could be called "first string" without a few alternates being named.

The ends will be chosen from Quahane, Murdock and Lester. Quahane, made over from a half-back of last year, is the fastest of the trio, heavy enough and appears to have first call. Murdock has experience over Lester and may hold down his job again.

Backfield Berths Far From Settled.

The backfield will be all new faces, with the exception of Captain "Deacon" Black, shifted from fullback to quarter. Lane, much heavier than last year, has been moved from end to fullback and should show to good advantage on line plays. Last year the St. Mary's line often opened holes large enough to drive a truck through, only to have these close up again before Black could get there. The halfback candidates are waging a merry battle for the places. Prell is doing a large share of the passing and appears a logical selection for one, but the other will go to either Bolger or Grant. Both Grant and Bolger are the leading punters and both can do a fair share of passing. Reed must still be figured in the race for a halfback berth, according to those who know, for while he is not a punter of note his work around ends and on line plays justifies his being given a chance. But this aggregation comprises the first squad and there are no new candidates in view to displace any of those named.

Burgess and Horrell Advance on Merit.

A most radical change was made in practice at California yesterday when Bill Gallagher was removed from the first string in favor of Babe Horrell. The change is not permanent by any means, but indicates that these two are so nearly on a par in their battle for the center position that neither can afford to take it easy for a minute. Undoubtedly it will be nip and tuck throughout the year with Horrell having the advantage in that he is a sophomore with two more years ahead of him, while this is Gallagher's last season. If Horrell continues to improve steadily he will displace Gallagher to the same position he held last season, second string center.

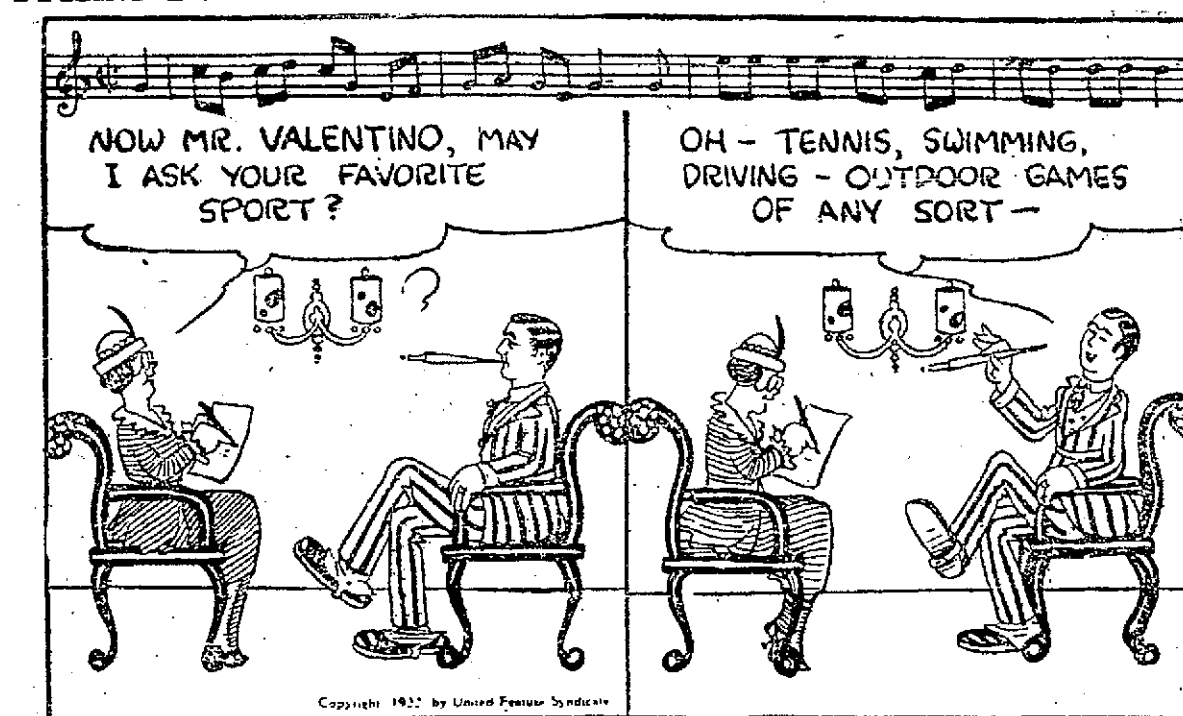

The advance of Burgess to the first string during signal practice is another instance of the rapid rise of an "unknown." Burgess made his first bid for fame in the interclass series with the Juniors. Carried on the second string for ten days he showed such promise that Andy Smith took him in tow on his first fifteen and allowed him to run in the combination of Erb, Nichols and Nisbet, in which Burgess looked good, to say the least, at the present time and his development necessitated Dick Dunn being turned over to Nils Price for the second team.

Both Jim and Bob, veteran predictors of football scores, who look after California Field, predict that the Bears will vanquish Coach Buckingham's Santa Clara by a margin of two touchdowns. Figuring that the Bruins will punt until they get a "break" and will give second string material a tryout in the second half, this looks about right.

Gi Doble should go undefeated this year at Cornell, Dartmouth representing the only difficulty. Niagara, New Hampshire State and Albright, the new additions to the schedule, mean little in the way of competition.

Jerry Pearce, promising California end candidate, who underwent an operation last Thursday, is expected out of this week, but will see little action for a short time to come.

Lions and Rotarians Have Hard Row to Hoe to Catch Up.

By W. D. McNICOLL

The Kiwanis, Lions and Rotarians held the second of their series of three matches at Sequoyah yesterday. The Kiwanis still retain a lead over their rivals with a total of 107 1/2 points against the Lions' 97 1/2 and the Rotarians' 82 1/2.

The Rotarians made a much better showing yesterday, scoring 11 more points than they did at Claremont, while the Kiwanis dropped 2 points and the Lions scored 9 less.

S. E. Biddle was the high scorer for the leaders with 9 1/2 points. Clair V. Goodwin, who is responsible for the unique scoring system, explains it as follows: Three ball threesome are played with a possible score of one point for a win at each hole, should the hole be halved by all three, each score 1/2 of a point. If two of the four score they gain a 1/2 point each. Goodwin should be in the Lions' team, but is recovering from an operation.

THE KIWANIS TEAM.
The Kiwanis team that has held the lead throughout is composed of: Andrew Clark, Barton, Lee Dunham, S. E. Biddle, A. C. Hibbard, Abe Leach, Harry Bell and S. E. Jackson. The Lions, who did so well at Claremont, have a dark horse as their lead off man in E. H. Mulch. Mr. Mulch has a high reputation in Canadian golfing circles, but has not played much since coming to Oakland, but with the assistance of Howard Rector, Roy Emmett, H. C. Caswell, C. G. Knight, C. E. Barber, Walter Wilson and W. A. Johnston make a very evenly balanced team. The Rotarians have several star players who have failed to show, but hope to do better next week at Berkeley, where the final contest takes place. The Rotarians have J. H. L'Hommedieu, Stanley Forsterman, Ben Davidson, Karl Brakes, W. H. Morris, Howard Swift, Al Gibson and J. J. Rosborough as their representatives.

The detailed scores are as follows:

Kiwanis	54-5-6	at Claremont
Kiwanis	52-8-6	at Sequoyah
Total	107-2-3
Lions	53-1-3	at Claremont
Lions	44-1-8	at Sequoyah
Total	97-2-3
Rotarians	35-5-6	at Claremont
Rotarians	46-6-6	at Sequoyah
Total	82-2-3

TROPHY IS AT STAKE.
The winners in the present series of matches will score one point toward the necessary three points to obtain the permanent possession of a valuable trophy to be competed for annually. The final match was to have taken place next Tuesday at Berkeley, but had to be postponed as the annual banquet falls on that date. A dinner will be held at the Berkeley Golf and Country Club at the conclusion of the final contest, which will be held some time during next week.

TOURNAMENT AT CLAREMONT.
The third contest for the President's cup at Claremont yesterday was played under ideal conditions and well attended. Mrs. R. R. Yates, the winner had a remarkable medal score of 84-17-2. This is Mrs. Yates' best score on record and is only 3 over par. Mrs. C. F. Ford, who has been playing very little golf recently on account of her removal to San Francisco, yesterday scored 84-17-2. This is Mrs. Yates' best score on record and is only 3 over par. Mrs. C. F. Ford, who has been playing very little golf recently on account of her removal to San Francisco, yesterday scored 84-17-2. This is Mrs. Yates' best score on record and is only 3 over par.

The handicaps are limited to 20 in this event and many of the players competing yesterday are under-handicapped. The detailed scores are as follows:

Mrs. R. R. Yates	84-17-2
Mrs. C. F. Ford	84-17-2
Mrs. B. E. Legare	83-11-8
Mrs. C. A. Suoy	106-20-8
Mrs. H. A. Prole	94-6-8
Mrs. Everson	108-20-8
Mrs. J. C. Warrman	109-20-8
Mrs. J. C. Cushing	104-11-9
Miss Violet Whitney	111-18-9
Mrs. H. H. Sharwood	112-20-8
Mrs. R. R. Read	119-20-9

FOOTBALL FACTS worth knowing by SOL METZGER

Q. What is a fair catch?

A. A fair catch is made by catching the ball after it has been kicked by one of the opponents and before it touches the ground. The player, prior to an attempt to catch the ball, signals his intention of making a fair catch by raising his hand clearly above his head, and does not take more than two steps after making the catch. Rule 6, Section 5.

Q. If a player has been tackled and is off his feet, can he get up and run?

A. He may, provided that he was not in the grasp of an opponent. Rule 6, Section 13 (a).

Q. Can a player who started the game and was taken out in the first half return in the second half?

A. He can return to the game at any time, during the second half. Rule 3, Section 2.

Q. If a player of the side with the ball makes a false start and draws the opponent's offense, are the opponents penalized?

A. No, but the offensive team is penalized five yards for deliberately attempting to draw their opponents' offense. Rule 13, Section 6.

Q. If the defensive center strikes or interferes with his opponent's punting, what is the penalty?

A. Loss of five yards for each offense. Rule 15, Section 1. If any football rules puzzle you, write Sol Metzger, care of our Sporting Editor, enclosing stamp of ten cents.

MISS HOLLINS IS ELIMINATED IN GOLF MATCH

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Sept. 27.—Long Island's premier golfers met yesterday on Orson Briar course in the women's national golf championship with the result that Miss Marion Hollins of Westbrook was eliminated from further play in the annual tournament and loses her crown.

Her conqueror was Mrs. Quantina Seaton of the South Shore club, six times Metropolitan champion, who won 7 and 6 to play.

The other well-known stars went through the first round of matching play in consistent style, none failing to win her match and thereby continue in the tournament. The scores, for the most part, were low and none of the pairings were so close that it required the last putt on the last green to determine the winner.

Miss Hollins, who won her title at Hollywood last year, has played little golf since, because of illness and absence from this country. The lack of steady playing showed plainly, for she played her first round after time, falling into bad lies, missed the greens of her approach shots and putted weakly. She lost the first two holes with scores of 6 and 7 and from then on the result was in doubt.

Miss Gianna Collett, Providence player, had little trouble in defeating Mrs. H. D. Sterrett, Hutchinson, Kansas, by a wide margin.

Miss Alma Stirling, Astoria, three times national champion, played excellently.

Three Cheers and a Plentitude of Tigers
ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, Sept. 27.—(By The Associated Press).

The Prince of Wales dubbed his tee shot in "playing himself in" as a member of the Royal and Ancient Golf Clubs today. In driving from the first tee before a crowd of golfers the prince scuffed his shot, cutting into the ground, with the club before striking the ball) driving only fifty yards.

A great cheer went up when the prince, appropriately garbed for the occasion, carried out the ceremony which has existed since the club was founded in 1774.

One of the caddies retrieved the ball and presented it to the prince, who rewarded him with the usual sovereign.

Coach Hunt Has Powerful Frosh Eleven

C. Davis, Coach Thornhill's Nephew, Good at Tackle;
Nevers at Fullback.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 27.—Andy Kerr's first string eleven and "Husky" Hunt's 1922 team will meet this afternoon in the first varsity football scrimmage of the season. Despite the fact that Hunt has been painfully short of line material for his babe eleven, he has succeeded in developing a string of young fighters who look far better than might have been expected. His backfield needs no further additions. Hunt's big problem there is to classify them in order of excellence, a feat of no small proportions because of the heavy competition.

Some idea of how the babes will look against Kerr's two-hundred pounders may be gained by studying the scores of the freshmen scrimmage with the goofs yesterday morning. When the goofs played the varsity last Saturday, Thatch Taylor made the lone touchdown for his side. Yesterday morning, Thatch went to mingle with the elite under Kerr, the goofs scored not at all against the babes and had their own goal seriously threatened so often that it became a habit to charge the opposition out of dangerous territory.

Bill Goodrich, 175-pound tackle from Hill Military Academy of Portland, one of the latest additions to the babe line, seems to be the best find from the long list of unknowns. His game against the goofs proved that he has been taught considerable football. It was only once or twice during the game that he showed signs of being out of the play. And as for his offensive game, when yards were needed, he usually made them possible through his side of the line.

Walker walked into Paul Fasoth's place at center and proceeded to show that Hunt's confidence had not been misplaced. A little more practice in passing the ball will make him look pretty good on the average man at center.

Arian Sholes of Long Beach Poly and Bob Nicholson of Twin Falls, Idaho, did not look as bad at tackle as they did last year. Nicholson weighs only 160 pounds, but his low and hard. If he begins to start quicker and becomes a little lighter on his feet, he may become a regular man at his position.

Cleo Davis, "Tiny" Thornhill's nephew from Pittsburg, light as he is, played a mighty good game at guard. He will probably take on a few pounds before the start of the season comes, and unless something pretty good in the way of babe guards turns up between now and then, "Tiny's" relative has a place pinned.

Harold Boles, of Lincoln High school of Los Angeles, and Worth, of Potter High school of San Francisco started at the ends. Stratton, from Downey, and Stevenson, who has just showed up and has no home town according to the register, substituted for Boles and Worth in the middle of the play. All four of them appear to know their stuff and will probably have a stiff battle to settle their differences.

Ernie Nevres got away from fullback and tried his hand at halfback. He did not look as bad at halfback as he did at fullback. He is a backfield man, with a reputation from Pennsylvania, stepped into Nevres' shoes, but does not look nearly so good. He seems to fit in far better at halfback. He can't kick, or at any rate he couldn't yesterday, and he doesn't carry the weight necessary to compete with Nevres.

Allan Rispin, who played quarter for Hitchcock Military Academy last season and who has been second quarter for the Card babes so far this season, looked even better than Nick Kerwin, who has been regularly at the executive position. He pulled a fast Slack-oomb trick of leading after punts and when the advancing ends started looting to see what he was going to do he grabbed the ball and carried it back to where it first left the good fullback's boot.

Taken as a whole, the freshmen were something of a surprise to everybody except "Husky" Hunt, who won't be surprised by anything. The line was expected to melt like snow before the goofs, but succeeded in holding the opposition like Horatius and his benchmen at the bridge. The punting and passing was expected to be good and was nothing short of fearful. The distance for kicks must have averaged the phenomenal distance of twenty or twenty-five yards and the percentage of completed passes compared favorably to what the small boy shot at. But taken as a whole, the showing made by the babes was quite a bit better than Cardinal supporters hoped for.

Nevada Wolf Pack to Have Strong Eleven

Herb Foster, Veteran Halfback, Is Out With Broken Arm.

BY WALKER G. MATHESON.

UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA, Sept. 27.—The Nevada Wolf Pack is a formidable looking bunch this year and should prove a hard line to buck. Over 90 men have turned out for grid practice, out of which number good varsity material has been picked, while the freshmen have the strongest team Nevada has ever had. The Goofs are also a wicked bunch.

Positions on the 'varsity eleven have been hotly contested in the past two weeks. With a big selection, the coaches have been able to pick a team that will do credit to any college with an enrollment double that of Nevada's.

SHAW COACHES LINE.

Trouble in the past was always experienced by the Wolf Pack in the use of hands on the defense, but with the coaching of "Buck" Shaw of Notre Dame, who knows the tricks, a good line is being built up on the defensive line. It was made on the famous Notre Dame eleven for four years. Coach Courtwright, who has turned out several fast teams for Nevada, is giving his entire attention to the backfield.

Nevada lost some good material during the summer, but the gaps left in the line have been more than filled. Donnels, from Annapolis, Md., plays as a member of Gil Doble's squad, who, from all appearances, is a hard man to keep off the team. The Nevadans have back with them this year an old-limer, who was captain of the varsity in 1916, the Team Captain, elder brother of Bill Martin, who made a name for himself on the grid. Captain Hobbs from San Diego is back again and will play left end. As Hobbs is a glutton for punishment and has knocked, he will no doubt lead the Silver and Blue through a successful season.

VETERANS SHOW SPEED.

In the line are several veterans of last year. Carlson, "Map Mountain," from Eureka, a fast player despite his 200 deadweight, is back again. Pierson, on account of his speed, is playing on the right side position to enable him to go down under punts. McCorkle, with three years' college experience behind him, is at end. Church is back as is Duborg, Elsner and Faulbaum. Among the new backs are Jones, Oxden Monahan and Al Lowery, all showing to good advantage. The diminutive Huggs, the fastest man Nevada has on the grid, is showing good form so far. "Chet" Scranston at half is demonstrating the fact that he has not lost the skill that marked his play during the game with Stanford last year.

The first scrimmage was held last Saturday, both the Frosh and Goof teams opposing the 'Varsity. The big team men found no difficulty in bucking through the husky yearling line, while Huggs, playing right half, and Scranston, filling fullback position, invariably made heavy gains, going down only when four or five men were on top of them. Both these men are good runners in the broken field. Knocking the fact that he has not lost the skill that marked his play during the game with Stanford last year.

Nevada has lost a good half-back in Herb Foster, who suffered a broken arm in tackling practice last week. This would have been Foster's third year on the 'Varsity. Nevada meets the Agnetian club of San Francisco this Saturday on Mackay field.

EBBETS PLANS SHAKUP.
NEW YORK, Charley Ebbets figures on having a new team in Brooklyn next year. He has asked waivers on 17 present members of the Robins.

Benny Vierra To Invade the Eastern Game

BENNY VIERRA is going east to take a fling at the big game and he will be accompanied by Jockey Levy, the smallest manager of boxers in the world. Levy has made arrangements with Bob McAllister to handle the local featherweight and McAllister is quite satisfied with the arrangement as he thinks highly of the little Jockey. Teddy Silva will accompany Benny and his manager.

The boys will leave shortly after the world baseball series and will head directly for Philadelphia. If they arrive there before October 21, Levy has been promised action for his stable on the 28th.

Outside of that little Levy is in tough luck. He has been boxing in San Francisco this week and then heads for Los Angeles where he has six fights on one card. How he came to overlook having an entry in the curtain raiser the Jockey cannot explain.

Ernie Goozeman Off For Australia

GOOZEMAN, San Diego, featherweight, has left for San Francisco to sail for Australia, where he is signed for a number of 20-round bouts.

FIRPO TO MEET TRACY.
BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 27.—Great interest is being evinced in the coming 15-round boxing bout between Luis Angel Firpo, heavy-weight champion of South America, and Jim Tracy, the Australian. The men will fight on the afternoon of October 8 in a huge open-air amphitheater which is now under construction.

In his first meeting with the Indiana squad, Coach Herron told his men that their success would depend on hard work.

In addition to his ability as a football player, Herron was an honor student in both the college and law school at Pitt and when he is not devoting his time to football, he is a practicing attorney in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Coach Herron Takes Charge At Indiana U.

New Coach in Place of Stiehm Recommended
By Glenn Warner.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Sept. 27.—"He's hot rocks," exclaimed Frank ("Duke") Hanny, captain of the Indiana University football team for 1922.

The ejaculation was uttered near the end of a long and trying session of the sub-committee of the Athletic Board of Control of Indiana University, named to select a football coach to succeed E. O. ("Jumbo") Stiehm, when the latter was granted sick leave. The committee has been talking over the long distance telephone with James P. ("Pat") Herron, who had been recommended by Glenn Warner, coach of the University of Pittsburgh, and terms had been agreed upon.

"He's hot rocks," shouted Capt. Hanny and that seems to be the opinion of the entire student body at Indiana, judging from the reception given the new coach when he arrived in Bloomington just in time for the first practice of the season. Coach Herron is just 33, an aviator of the world war, was selected end on Walter Camp's second all-American team.

He served as Glenn Warner's chief assistant at the University of Pittsburgh for two years. He was started on his third when he was chosen head coach at Indiana.

In his first meeting with the Indiana squad, Coach Herron told his men that their success would depend on hard work.

In addition to his ability as a football player, Herron was an honor student in both the college and law school at Pitt and when he is not devoting his time to football, he is a practicing attorney in Pittsburgh, Pa.

BANKERS TO SEE SELVES IN FILM OF THEIR TRIP

Seeing themselves in California as others see them is to be the novel experience of the eastern investment bankers who will cross the California line next Tuesday en route to the Del Monte convention opening October 2. At Truckee and at every important stop on the long swing and intervening side trips through the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys, into the southland, and up the coast to Santa Barbara and Del Monte, the visitors will be filmed as they inspect California development projects and main first hand knowledge of the state's resources. The California group, as hosts, has not only arranged for the camera work, but has planned a showing of the reels at Del Monte the night after the arrival of the trains there.

It is probable that the reels will be circulated through some of the news syndicates reaching eastern

News of the Churches

Swedish Conference to Be Held

The fifteenth session of the Pacific Swedish conference of the Methodist Episcopal church opens this evening at the Emmanuel Swedish Methodist church of Berkeley. Sessions are to be held every day, with the concluding meetings on Sunday.

Bishop Charles Wesley Burns, D. D., is the president of the conference and will preside. Others who will have a leading part are O. F. Linstrum, district superintendent, and Rev. Anthony E. Lind, pastor of the Emmanuel church. The conference will thus receive advantageous exploitation and the significance of the visit of the financial men will be emphasized.

On the screen also the visitors will be shown some of the distinctive features of California. The entertainment committee has arranged to show films of Chinatown, San Francisco; Los Angeles, "From the Sierras to the Sea," the Monterey peninsula, the San Joaquin Light and Power company properties, "San Francisco, the City of Enchantment," and Pacific Gas and Electric company plants.

These pictures will be displayed at Del Monte on October 3, on the evening before the opening of the convention.

The opening session this evening will consist of a public reception to Bishop Burns and members of the Pacific conference.

Thursday's sessions will include addresses by Dr. N. E. Davis, corresponding secretary board of hospitals and homes, and Dr. C. O. Ford of Massachusetts, representing the board of conference claimants.

The anniversary of the Women's Foreign Missionary society will be observed on Friday afternoon with Mrs. W. W. Sandholt, president.

Dr. Bernard J. J. Davis, missionary to China, will deliver an address. Friday evening J. N. Burdell will preside at the evening session, when an illustrated missionary lecture will be given by Dr. Charles E. Vermilya, department of the frontier. His subject will be "Kingdom Building in the Home Field."

Bishop Burns will deliver the centenary address Saturday evening on "The Living Christ in the Modern World." C. W. Bergquist will preside at this meeting.

Sunday morning a sermon will be delivered by Dr. C. Stevens, president of the national training board of B. L. A. gospel address will be delivered in Swedish by J. A. Wilhelm and one in English by F. Ahlstrand.

An evangelistic service will be held in the evening, with G. E. Kallstedt presiding. The sermon will be delivered by C. H. Sundstrom and the altar service conducted by O. F. Linstrum.

The young people of the First Christian church gathered in the Christian Endeavor auditorium of the First Christian church Monday night, where they were given a farewell address by Dr. H. A. Van Winkle, former pastor of the church, who left that evening for Eugene, Ore.

Following the farewell service at the church Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Wilford, soloists of the First church choir, invited the young people to their home, 206 Perkins street, where the final reception was tendered Dr. Van Winkle.

A delegation of the young people accompanied Dr. Van Winkle to the train, where they wished him success in his new venture. After six years of service at the First church Dr. Van Winkle resigned to do evangelistic work.

One of the first things to be undertaken by Dr. Van Winkle is the raising of half a million dollars for the University of Eugene, Oregon. He is to start this work at once.

The ladies of the St. Philip's church at Fruitvale will serve a dinner tomorrow evening at the guild hall, 1400 street and Nicol avenue, from 6 to 7:30 p. m. Elaborate preparations are being made by the ladies for the evening.

Apprenticed Film Star Sues to Break Training Contract

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—When Lucile Langhanke, a motion picture star known as Mary Astor, was 15 years old, two years ago, her father indentured her for six years to Harry Durant, theatrical producer, to prepare her to become a film star. Today, before Justice McCook, the father tried to enjoin Durant from interfering with her employment, claiming that the indenture papers had been misrepresented.

Durant, an old friend of the Langhanke family, according to testimony, promised to train the girl, provided he so a quarter of her salary above $100 a week. Soon the girl gave promising offers for her services and found that the contract interfered with accepting them.

The father's claim in court was that Durant had never obtained any positions for his daughter. Durant, denying this charge, insisted that the financial part of the contract be carried out. Decision was reserved.

'BUILD NOW' WILL BE THEME FOR HOME EXPOSITION

Affair Will Open Tomorrow and Continue for Three Weeks.

"Build Now in Oakland" and "Own Your Own Home" will be the twin propositions exemplified tomorrow afternoon at the opening of the California Complete Homes Exposition in Lakeshore Highlands.

The exposition will open at 2:30 p. m. with exercises in the natural amphitheater and will be free to the public. The ten model homes will be open for inspection at the same time, to continue for three weeks.

J. C. Downer, president of the California Complete Homes Exposition, will preside at the meeting tomorrow afternoon. Mayor John L. Davis will speak on "Home Ownership and Civic Responsibility"; F. E. Porter of the Oakland Real Estate Board, will speak on "Oakland, City of Opportunity," and there will be addresses on Oakland's present and future by Joseph L. King, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and J. H. Spiro, of the Merchants' Exchange.

The exposition, the first of its kind, is given under the "Oakland Plan," which is to have the home making exhibits installed in complete homes, located in attractive surroundings.

The better homes idea will be presented by Bernard C. Jackway, University of California extension lecturer, who will deliver the first of a series of four addresses on interior decoration tomorrow. The subject of the first address will be "The Open Road to Beauty in the Home." Professor Jackway will also speak on Saturday afternoon at 2:30. On Friday afternoon at 2:30 there will be a free concert.

The Ladder of Life

Affair Will Open Tomorrow and Continue for Three Weeks.

"Build Now in Oakland" and "Own Your Own Home" will be the twin propositions exemplified tomorrow afternoon at the opening of the California Complete Homes Exposition in Lakeshore Highlands.

The exposition will open at 2:30 p. m. with exercises in the natural amphitheater and will be free to the public. The ten model homes will be open for inspection at the same time, to continue for three weeks.

J. C. Downer, president of the California Complete Homes Exposition, will preside at the meeting tomorrow afternoon. Mayor John L. Davis will speak on "Home Ownership and Civic Responsibility"; F. E. Porter of the Oakland Real Estate Board, will speak on "Oakland, City of Opportunity," and there will be addresses on Oakland's present and future by Joseph L. King, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and J. H. Spiro, of the Merchants' Exchange.

The exposition, the first of its kind, is given under the "Oakland Plan," which is to have the home making exhibits installed in complete homes, located in attractive surroundings.

The better homes idea will be presented by Bernard C. Jackway, University of California extension lecturer, who will deliver the first of a series of four addresses on interior decoration tomorrow. The subject of the first address will be "The Open Road to Beauty in the Home." Professor Jackway will also speak on Saturday afternoon at 2:30. On Friday afternoon at 2:30 there will be a free concert.

Grape-Nuts
Made of Wheat and Barley
Postum Cereal Company
Battle Creek, Mich., U.S.A.

A FOOD
Containing the natural nutritive elements of these food grains thoroughly and scientifically baked.

ECONOMY
Four heaping tablespoons of GRAPE-NUTS for the cereal part of a meal is sufficient for an ordinary person. More may be used if desired.

NET WEIGHT TWELVE OZS.

THE bottom rungs are badly overcrowded, but there is still plenty of room at the top.

What is it that has lifted others—and can lift you—to a higher place upon life's ladder?

Abundant energy for every-day use, and ample reserve energy for emergencies.

If you have the ambition to succeed, and want to keep your whole body charged with driving energy, feed your body scientifically. In place of heavy, starchy, too highly seasoned dishes, eat food such as Grape-Nuts, which supplies unusual nourishment to all the body tissues.

The sturdy nutriment of wheat and malted barley is made easily digestible by more than 20 hours' baking which also accounts for that distinctive charm of flavor found only in Grape-Nuts.

Where you don't find Grape-Nuts, you won't find people!

The Pudding Pan's Diary Saturday
Awoke and found that the prunes I stewed last night had been served. At seven o'clock the kitchen clock I went to bed with some breakfast food to crisp. Then I was given six eggs which, after warming up to my work and with the aid of a cover, I poached with a little less than one-half the amount of heat ordinarily used. You see, I heat up evenly all over, hold the heat a long time and, therefore, I save a lot of fuel.

After breakfast I made a delicious rice pudding for luncheon. The children love the kind I make. And then it became a question of whether I would make soup, or heat up a can of beans. The soup won. Finally, I was given the thickest of the aluminum from which I am made, and I resist the action of strong food acids, I do not absorb odors or flavors, and I am safe and sanitary.

Tomorrow is Sunday. I always start Sunday upside down—inverted over a dish of cold cut to keep them hot. I love that job, too.

TRY this full-size, two-quart "Wear-Ever" Aluminum Pudding Pan in your kitchen. See how it meets all cooking requirements. Note that it is made of thicker, harder aluminum than ordinary cooking utensils.

It is for the purpose of showing you the significance of the fact that "Wear-Ever" utensils ARE made of HARD, THICK, SHEET aluminum that we are offering you this $95 "Wear-Ever" two-quart Pudding Pan at 49c (for a limited time only.)

More than two million housewives know what the "Wear-Ever" trade-mark on the bottom of a kitchen utensil stands for. We want YOU to know so that you, too, will replace utensils that wear out with utensils that "Wear-Ever."

Go to the nearest "Wear-Ever" dealer and get this $95 pan for 49c TODAY.

Oakland East of the Lake

(By the Oakland Real Estate Board)

Because of the fact that Oakland looks to industrial development for its immediate advancement, the great East Oakland district forms one of the most important assets of this community, one which is at the present time serving the community in a vital way and which offers opportunity for future industrial expansion to a degree greater than that of any other section of the city.

Topography, geography, transportation facilities and development history all combine to make this district most attractive to many of the forms of industry which are seeking locations here. Extensive acreages adapted to manufacturing concerns are here to be had at market prices far below those asked for similarly situated sites elsewhere. In the immediate vicinity also are extensive resident areas of middle class homes for the accommodation of factory employees.

The low market prices for lands in this East Oakland district, the opportunity for expansion, the nearness of resident districts to the industrial zones, its equipment with transportation facilities and the attention being given this section by builders and industrial engineers is rapidly making of it the workshop in which a very large percentage of Oakland is to earn its livelihood and is making it also an extensive district of attractive homes in which the home owning wage-earner lives under conditions far more satisfactory than obtained in other industrial centers.

MAXWELL PARK HOMES

In homes as in people, there is a vast difference in "Quality." And it is as difficult to picture or describe real quality in homes as it is in a human being, although in its presence one instinctively feels it. The instant you enter a BURRITT & SHEALEY-built HOME you just naturally sense its "quality."

Homes of 3 or 6 rooms with unexcelled views of the bay, the hills and the Santa Clara Valley.

DAILY MAGAZINE PAGE of the OAKLAND TRIBUNE

Winifred Black Writes FOLKS AND about THINGS

How much there is in game—how they show well the engrossing thoughts of those who play and those who look on! Looking on, it seems, is getting to be the real pleasure of many persons. The vast crowds that gather to see a few men play 'baseball'—men who perhaps once played the great game themselves but who now sit planted in a seat watching some other fellows play. And play which is work too—this seems but a feat of recreation.

The great bowls, where fast racers on racing motors drive round and round in mad rivalry with thousands looking on, the immense crowds at the so-called boxing matches—these afford little in the way of manly sports and exercise and generous play for the fun of it, to the great mass of men who profess to be votaries of the 'American Game'.

To see the real enthusiasts of baseball you must go to some vacant lot and watch the play of some school boys, who have called to meet their friends from some other school. Then no longer talk I wonder if, at last, we shall see the whole world going on wheels and wondering what legs and feet were made for.

In music, were you the same was Angeline rarely sits down to the piano and plays her favorite music. The talking machine is called into requisition, and it plays so well for dancing that no one dreams of turning herself at the piano.

We walk, we sing, we dance by machinery. We play most of our games by proxy. Only a few are left in which vigor and individuality and the love of outdoor sport gives play to the survivors of active life.

Where are we going with our amusements by proxy? We are certainly going somewhere and it a great, great rate of speed. But we are being carried—we do not walk—and even such exercise as horseback riding is too much for this generation.

I think the girls have rather the best of it, as far as the games go. Tennis is still played by its enthusiastic lovers, although there are great rivals as even in this—professional tennis. Golf, also, is in danger of becoming too professional, though it still has its ancient prestige among the people who think of it as a sure method of forgetting cares.

But I never heard of the golf widow and their lonely plaint. I hope the rising generation will take its amusements more practically, that the baseball enthusiasts will play ball, that the boys will be to do things for exercise and amusement, rather than sit and look on while others do all the work and have all the fun and glory of the play.

The Thinking Room.

John Workwell—
Was a patient man—
And every day took up his cross—
Without regret—
His years were few when he had led—
A blushing maiden up the aisle—
Down which no sane man e'er returns—
Without the man stamp on his face—
For though the aisles are banked with flowers—
Their smiling faces hide the thorns—
That come or life—
And as the years slipped quickly by—Wee children came to cheer the lot—
Of this kind man—
And added to his days a zest—
That he had never known before—
So John toiled on and now and then—
A meager raise came in his pay—
And he was glad—
And while the children were yet young—
He planned and built a modest home—
With kitchen, parlor, living room—
And roomy bath—
And on the rear end of the house—
John had the workmen build a den—
Where he could sit at night and think—
When worried sore—
And so they called this little nest—
Dad's thinking room—
And years pushed by and John had grown—
A little gray—and stooped and silent—
And growing school girls came at night—
And hugged him tight and kissed him—
Then whispered in his willing ears—
That they must have some brand new frocks—
For fancy parties—and always got them—
Then John would sit in silent thought—
At dinner table—
And late night hours would find him—
In his thinking room—
Where he would sit and conjure on a plan—
That would forever keep regret—
From loved one's hearts—
But graying hair won't raise men's pay—
And bounding youth has many wants—
And John was much perplexed—and sad—
But with a granite heart toiled on—
And planned and schemed and somehow he—Contrived—
His happy family never knew or questioned—
It was enough for John to see—
The love of life shine in their eyes—
It never occurred to them—
Their world gave forth no warning cry—
They lived and laughed—these butterflies—
And danced the hours away—
While bowed within his thinking room—
A martyr sat.

Would you like to have a 'WING DOLL'—Yes, a doll that exactly walls nearly as big as a baby and as pretty as a fairy princess? Not only does she walk but she talks and she is so sweet and does almost everything except eat lambs! Of course no one expects a doll to eat lambs, so she is quite perfect in every way. She is so beautiful and so perfect that she is the most perfect doll that has ever been made. She is the only doll that can be given away to a child and the child will be given away to the doll. She is the only doll that can be given away to a child and the child will be given away to the doll. She is the only doll that can be given away to a child and the child will be given away to the doll.

THE PEDDING OF HABIT-FORMING DRUGS IN JAILS IS A NEARLY TRAFFIC COMMON TO MANY COUNTY JAILS. DRUG ADDICTS WHO ARE SENT TO JAIL OFTEN HAVE THE STUFF TO SMOKEN AND HAVE BEEN GIVEN THE CONVICTION OF A DEPENDENT OR JAILER. HE MAY SHARE UP WITH A CELL-MATE. IN THE ENERVATING ATMOSPHERE OF THE JAIL MANY INNOCENT PERSONS AWAITING TRIAL HAVE BECOME ADDICTED TO THE USE OF COCAINE, HEROIN, AND OTHER DRUGS. THEY HAVE GONE OUT INTO THE WORLD TO STEAL AND ROB TO SUPPLY THEMSELVES WITH THE POISON.

Not all county jails confine prisoners in one cell building, however. There are a few where the county jail has been established for the long term, those serving from a month to a year. Theoretically the men are supposed to find plenty of outdoor work raising produce and tending the stock.

In reality the weakened, violent drug addicts and perverts that are turned out by the county jail cost the community infinitely more for police work, apprehension, conviction and imprisonment than would be paid for a humanitarian institution. The cost to a county of the depredations of even one crook is incalculable. Not only must one figure in the actual loss of stolen and property lost (yes, but the cost of arrest, conviction and maintenance in prison and the immoral effect on the growing generations of the example of such a person.

The county jail is not the only medieval blot in a good many states of the Union the prisons are little better than dungeons and the city jails are literal tombs.

Chapter 91.

THE MEDIEVAL BLOT.

THE county jail is the medieval blot upon our civilization. In scores of counties throughout the country prisoners are penned up in jails for months at a time, deprived of all sunlight, fresh air, every sort of healthful work or recreation.

The county jail compares favorably with the dungeons of the dark ages or the prisons of Paris where men and women were buried alive in their own filth, never to be seen again. Imagine human beings herded together in a dark, smelly cellar-like place where vile thoughts in the most vicious language harmonize with noxious odors, and you have the average county jail. There are no books, no newspapers, no light, no air, no recreation, no healthful work or recreation.

In the county jail they are like rats in a cage. If figures were compiled showing the number of prisoners who contract tuberculosis in the close, damp jail, they would astonish the most liberal minded person. I personally have seen strong men with bronzed cheeks enter a jail in perfect health and come out a few weeks later, emaciated, weak, languid, and undernourished. And being ill they were even less able to live honestly than they had been before.

The food served in jails is frequently unfit for human consumption and is a direct factor in producing disease among prisoners. The jailer or sheriff often has the "concession" for feeding and it is to his financial interest to give as little as possible. If he half starves the prisoners he may add a considerable sum to his own salary. Of course there are exceptions to this rule.

The peddling of habit-forming drugs in jails is a nefarious traffic common to many county jails. Drug addicts who are sent to jail often have the stuff to smoken and have been given the conviction of a dependent or jailer. He may share up with a cell-mate. In the enervating atmosphere of the jail many innocent persons awaiting trial have become addicted to the use of cocaine, heroin, and other drugs. They have gone out into the world to steal and rob to supply themselves with the poison.

Not all county jails confine prisoners in one cell building, however. There are a few where the county jail has been established for the long term, those serving from a month to a year. Theoretically the men are supposed to find plenty of outdoor work raising produce and tending the stock.

In reality the weakened, violent drug addicts and perverts that are turned out by the county jail cost the community infinitely more for police work, apprehension, conviction and imprisonment than would be paid for a humanitarian institution. The cost to a county of the depredations of even one crook is incalculable. Not only must one figure in the actual loss of stolen and property lost (yes, but the cost of arrest, conviction and maintenance in prison and the immoral effect on the growing generations of the example of such a person.

The county jail is not the only medieval blot in a good many states of the Union the prisons are little better than dungeons and the city jails are literal tombs. Tomorrow, "What a Criminal" were more than surprised, "Wetherby's" wife said, "I have learned a lesson."

Electing a Mayor

TODAY'S SHORT STORY by Ad Schuster

WHATEVER stinging insect it is that hovers over unassuming men and, with a bite, turns them to seekers for office, had done its work with Wetherby Cutler. Hitherto he had been known as a retiring citizen, an expert on insurance, and the husband of Mrs. Wetherby Cutler, president of the Wall City Women's Club. The political bug had made him a changed man.

"Vera," he said on the evening he made his plans known, "there are reasons, other than those of prominence to be gained or salaries involved, why a man should stand for office."

"Assuredly," the unsuspecting wife replied. "Have I not said so in a number of my addresses to the club?" The husband beamed on his spectacles and went on.

"If a man feels himself qualified to serve and if he has the time to devote to the task, he should offer himself." After a pause he added, as if it were no consequence, "That is why I am going to run for mayor."

Mrs. Cutler, with deliberation, placed her book on the table and turned her chair to face the author of the announcement.

"The sooner you dismisse that idea," she said in her firmest manner, "the better I shall be pleased. There is not a chance you would be elected."

The political bug in the Cutler household was one the wife could not out. It buzzed in the head of Wetherby and he went on with his plans. Wall City agreed he had no chance.

"If you had any political sagacity," Mrs. Cutler voiced the general opinion, "you would know that Tom Kentner, with the support of Colonel Ball and the administration, will win. As the papers would say, 'in a walk' he is not the man for the place but no one, much less you, can beat him."

"I do not agree," Wetherby was surprised at his boldness, "that the election should go by default. Kentner is not the man for the place and I shall oppose him. I have never said I would win and I see no disgrace in defeat." He tightened his lips and sat straight. "I shall continue to stand for the office."

As election approached it was evident politics had brought discord into the Cutler home. A wife who had been the city's most prominent playwoman felt humiliated, not because her husband aspired to office, but because of the certain prospect of defeat.

"Can't you see the ridiculous light you are putting me in?" she asked. "Whenever the women ask me how your campaign is coming on I know they are laughing to themselves. You do not seem to think of the figure your wife is cutting."

"I had thought," Wetherby answered regretfully, "you might make a few speeches in my interest." Then he retired.

Colonel Ball, political boss of Wall City, growled at the chauffeur who waited him at the curb, and walked home for the first time in months. It was a signal the colonel was worried.

"Mighta known," he said to himself, "Kentner could not stand prosperity. You'd think, to hear him talk, he was mayor already and had done it all himself. Haffa take it out of him afterwards. It's too late now."

The colonel nodded to acquaintances and felt better by the time he reached home. Like many another political boss, he was in the game for the fun and the sense of power. It is curious could not accuse him of graft.

Wall City was a small place but, politically, it was his. At the dinner table the girlish Mrs. Ball stated, as usual the day's incidents.

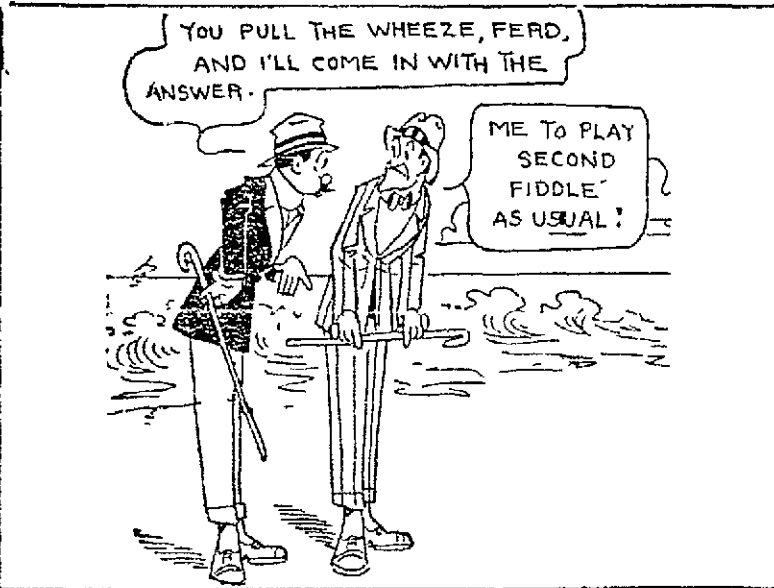

"Vera Cutler was perfectly odious at the club this afternoon. Naturally, it's election Tuesday, and she had to say something about her silly old husband running for office. One must appear interested and it's my belief she should stand up for him. Instead she informed the whole crowd of us, in that superior way she has, that she was perfectly aware Mr. Cutler has no chance of being elected and she is entirely out of sympathy with his candidacy. Now, listen, if you were running for office and didn't have a friend in town, do you suppose I would talk like that about you?"

"And it is also my belief," Mrs. Ball was never consistent, "that Wetherby Cutler is the smartest member of my family and would make a good mayor. It would serve her right if he got elected."

Colonel Ball's role at the table was one of a listener. He surprised his wife by the close attention he paid and, later, when he excused himself from the cribbage game and retired to the telephone.

Three days later when Wetherby Cutler was elected mayor a number of persons, including Tom Kentner and Mrs. Cutler,

Uncle Wiggily Stories By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE NUTS

WHEN Uncle Wiggily hopped back to his hollow stump bungalow one day, after having been out looking for adventures, the bunny gentleman found a little note written on a piece of white birch bark.

"Mrs. Bushytail, the squirrel lady, left this for you," said Nurse Fuzzy, Wuzzy giving Mr. Longears the birch bark note.

"Hum! I wonder what it's about?" murmured the bunny gentleman as he put on his glasses and stood his red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch up in the corner.

"Well, what is it?" asked Nurse Fuzzy, curious like, when the rabbit had finished reading.

"I don't know. Mrs. Bushytail just asks me to run over to her nest house. I have then," said Uncle Wiggily. "I guess there isn't any special trouble there—I mean nothing to hurry about, so I'll have fun and then hop over."

"Yes, Mrs. Bushytail said there was no special hurry," remarked the muskrat like. "So you might as well take your time."

And after lunch, when Uncle Wiggily hopped over the fields and through the woods to the nest house of the squirrel family, Mrs. Bushytail met him at the front door.

"It's about my two new baby squirrels, Nifty and Natty," whispered Mrs. Bushytail. "They won't crack nuts."

"Oh!" said Uncle Wiggily, not exactly understanding, "so they won't crack nuts, eh?"

"No," went on Mrs. Bushytail, "and you know squirrels, to get along in this world, must learn how to crack nuts in their teeth, or else they will starve. Johnnie and Billie, my older squirrel boys, are very good nut crackers. But up to now I have been cracking nuts for Nifty and Natty myself. However, it is time they learned, but they seem to be afraid, so I thought I'd ask you to see if you could teach them."

Uncle Wiggily twinkled his pink nose as he said, "Well, now, if it was to teach them to gnaw a cabbage stump, or bite a carrot I could teach them that all right, but you know we rabbits haven't the kind of teeth needed to crack nuts."

"I know that," whispered Mrs. Bushytail. "But you're so smart, Uncle Wiggily, and you've had so many adventures, that I'm sure you can think of a way to make Nifty and Natty crack nuts. Really there is nothing to be afraid of."

"Of course not!" laughed the bunny. "Well, I'll try. Give me some nuts and send Nifty and Natty, as well as Billie and Johnnie, over to me in the back yard."

Mrs. Bushytail gave Uncle Wiggily some hickory nuts in a birch bark basket and the bunny rabbit took them to the yard, where, in a little while, came the four squirrels—the two older boys and the two new little Bushytails, Nifty and Natty.

"Now, Nifty and Natty, what is this I hear about you?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "I mean about you not cracking nuts?"

"Yes—we're just sorters," skinned, shyly whispered Nifty. "What are you afraid of?" asked Uncle Wiggily, smiling.

"Cause now we—er—the nuts are so hard they'll break off our teeth or the sharp shells will cut our mouths!" said Nifty.

"Ho! Ho!" laughed Billie and Johnnie. "Look here! We don't get cut or break our teeth! And those two older squirrel boys began nibbling and gnawing and cracking the hard hickory nuts until they had taken the sweet inner kernels from half a dozen. The kernels they ate, throwing the sharp hard shells away."

"That's the way to do it!" said the bunny.

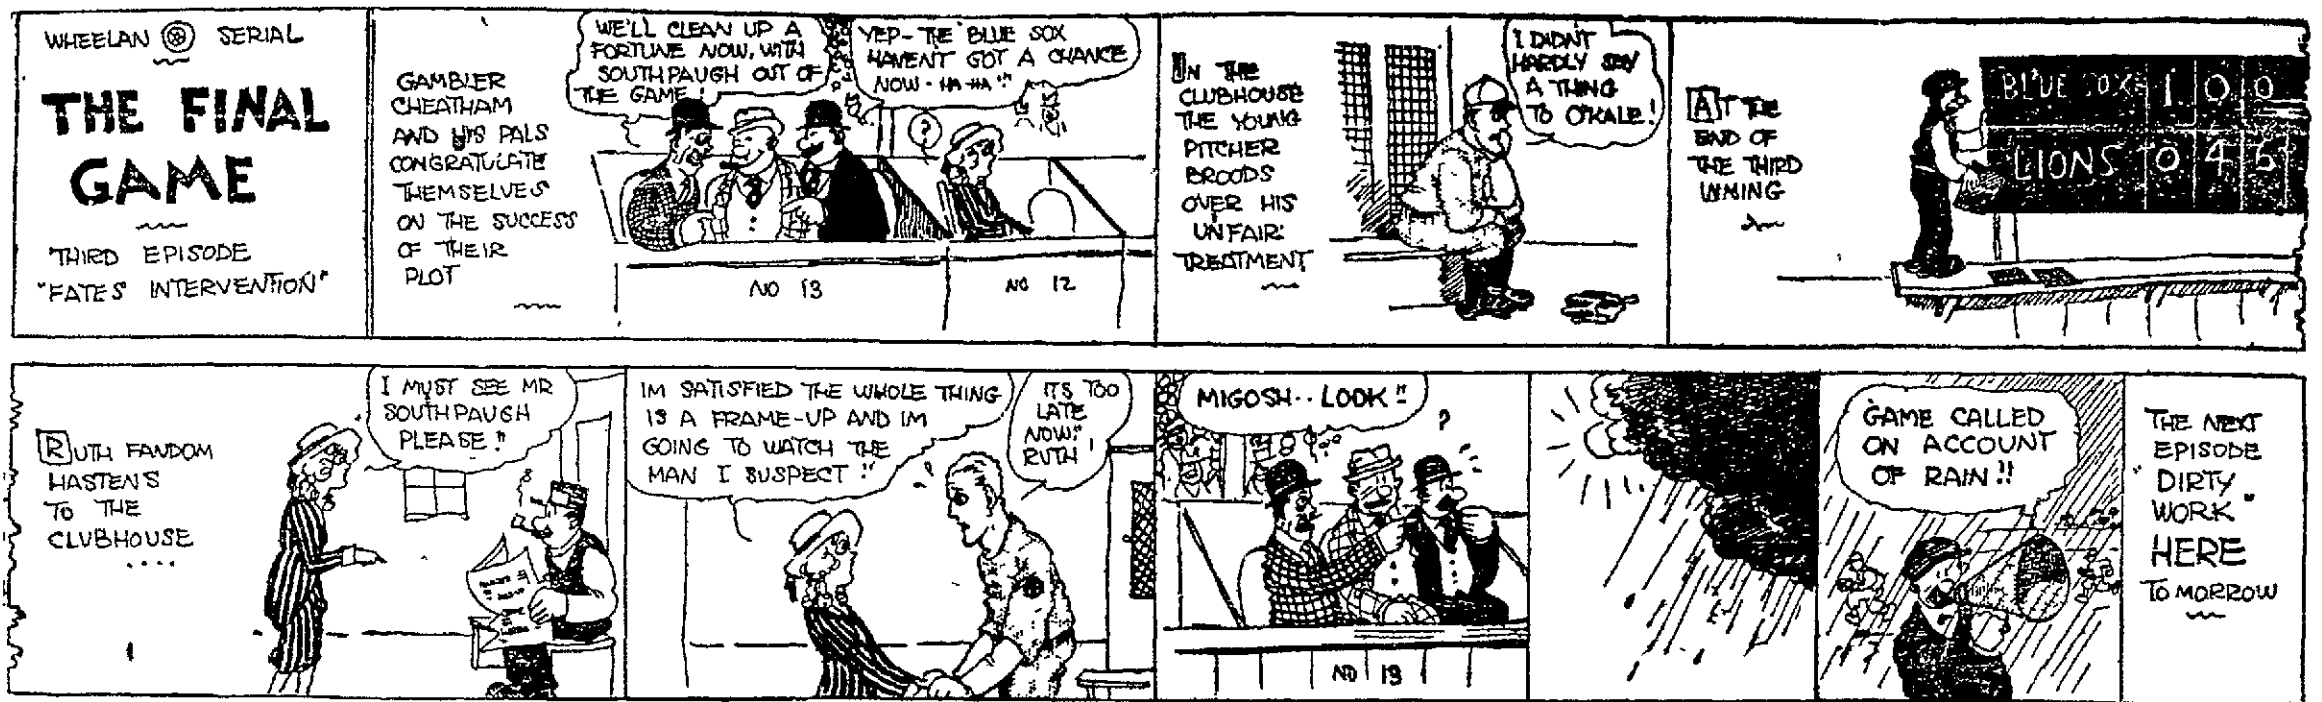

But though Nifty and Natty held nuts in their front paws and sat on their hind legs as Billie and Johnnie did, the little squirrels wouldn't bite into the shells hard enough to crack them. It was like when a baby is afraid to step out and walk by himself the first time.

"Hum! Something must be done," thought Uncle Wiggily. "I have a new plan!" he said out loud. He placed a pile of nuts in front of each squirrel boy. "Now," said the rabbit, "when I count three I want you all to begin to crack nuts, you, too, Nifty and Natty. Bile right at the hard shells and you'll see how easily you can crack them. And whoever cracks the most nuts will get an 'ice cream cone.'"

Uncle Wiggily began to count.

ed him with the shells.

Nifty and Natty waited a moment and then, all at once, they seemed to become brave. Before they knew it and forgetting all about being afraid of breaking their teeth and cutting their mouths, they grabbed up nuts, cracked off the shells and threw them at the fox.

"There!" shouted Nifty, hitting the fox on the nose with a big shell.

"Wow!" yelled the bad fox. "Here's another for you!" cried Natty, hitting the fox in his left eye with a shell.

"Whoopie! Snoopie!" howled the fox and away he ran.

"I guess there is no need of counting up to three," laughed Uncle Wiggily. "You have learned to crack nuts, Nifty and Natty. You even cracked more than Billie and Johnnie, but I'll buy each of you a cone. The fox came along just in time. The lesson is over."

Thus, Nifty and Natty never forgot how to crack nuts and so were no longer afraid.

HEALTHIER TONE IN TRADE HEARD FROM AUSTRALIA

Banks in Larger Cities Report Large Increase in Deposits.

The general tone of the financial and commercial conditions in Australia is healthy and distinctly encouraging, according to a cable to the Department of Commerce from Trade Commissioner Sanger.

Imports for the six months for Melbourne and Sydney from January 1 to September 4 were £907,000,000, an increase of £4,000,000 over the corresponding period in 1921. Both checking and savings deposits increased, showing the financial position to be healthy.

Imports for July (latest official statistics) totalled £7,700,000 as compared with £10,250,000 for June. Total exports for July were £8,130,000, a decrease from the June exports, which were £8,500,000. Imports slightly exceeded exports for July, but this is a seasonal condition.

Wool plays the most important part in Australian foreign trade and the wool season officially ended in June. Trade with the United States for June (statistics for specific countries are always month later) showed an increase over the May figures. Total imports from the United States for June were £1,450,000 as compared with £1,790,000 for May. Total exports to the United States increased from £700,000 in May to £1,580,000 in June.

The significant commodities imported during July were: Textiles (not apparel); knit apparel; agricultural implements and machinery; all other machinery; motor vehicles; electrical machinery; iron and steel; steel plates and sheets; galvanized iron plates and sheets; iron and steel wire.

Significant exports were: wheat, butter, gold and wool.

The cost of living (average price of food, groceries, and rent) increased about 1½ per cent over the previous month. The index number of wholesale prices of all commodities in Melbourne for July was 1569, compared with 1556 for June.

LABOR CONDITIONS.

There is a continued shortage of labor in the building industry which increasing in activity. There are fewer strikes and an increase of employment. The general condition is encouraging.

Delayed rains have prevented the possibility of a large Australian wheat yield. A fair crop is expected if it rains by October 1.

Wool production for August, based on arrivals at stores to date, is estimated at 118,000 bales.

Stocks of automobiles are light and indications are that increased purchases will be encouraged by the annual automobile show, which opens in Melbourne, September 25. Immigration continues normal and is almost wholly from the United Kingdom.

Ocean freight rates have declined sharply for meat, wool, cheese, tallow, and general cargoes. Wool rates have been reduced $\frac{1}{2}$ pence.

WEATHER FORECAST

OWNERS OF SPARK SETS URGED TO WRITE TRIBUNE

Letters Shower Radio Editor, But List Is Believed Incomplete.

In response to THE TRIBUNE's query for data concerning spark sets, owned by amateurs in the Eastbay district, letters are continuing to pour into the radio department from fans who desire to participate in "The Big Secret," a new radio stunt which is being planned by THE TRIBUNE.

If you own a transmitting radio set and have not done so already, be sure and fill out the blank on this page today and mail it to the radio editor if you want to play a part in the stunt which will soon be announced. Judging from the number of completed questionnaires which have been sent in since the announcement was made, less than a week ago, most all of the spark set owners in the Eastbay region have availed themselves of the opportunity to take part in the affair.

However, THE TRIBUNE wants a list of ALL of the amateurs who have transmitting sets.

Details of "The Big Secret" will be announced just as soon as a complete list of amateur transmitting stations is compiled.

If you want to take part in the stunt, and are not a member of the Oakland TRIBUNE Radio Club, fill out the blank anyway, and send it in, and you will be automatically made a member upon request.

Fifteen Minutes of Radio Daily

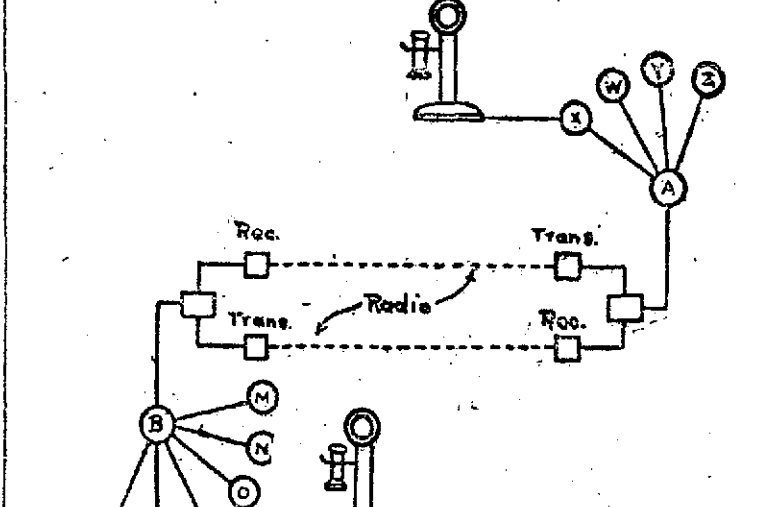

By Edward M. Davis

The telephone system as we know it before the advent of radio telephony was limited to communication between points on the same continent or nearby islands easily reached by short cables. The development of radiotelephony and its application as an extension to the existing telephone system may greatly increase the usefulness of this modern necessity. Already we have had demonstrations of the ability of the radiotelephone to carry the human voice half way around the world as demonstrated in the tests of 1915, conducted from Arlington, Virginia. More recently communication has been established with one of the fast trans-oceanic steamers so that persons on board the steamer could not only talk to persons at the radiotelephone station on shore but by means of trunk lines connecting to the local telephone exchange conversation could be carried on with any persons on shore who was near a telephone.

The way that conversations of this kind are carried on, partly wired and wireless telephony. Cities "A" and "B" may be located on opposite sides of the ocean and it is merely a question of building an economical transmitter and receiver to cover this distance in order to realize this world wide means of carrying on a conversation.

In order to minimize interference, the radio transmitters and receivers are mounted in carefully shielded buildings since considerable amplification is employed in the receiving stations and any local disturbance tends to render the voice signals indistinguishable. It is interesting to note that a system somewhat similar to the one described is in everyday commercial use on the Pacific Coast between the mainland at San Pedro and Catalina Island, located about thirty miles off shore. At one time during the process of development conversation was established between a person on a ship in the Atlantic ocean and a person on the island in the Pacific ocean, the circuit being completed over a radio system and partly over wires is clearly shown in the diagram. "A" and "B" represent two cities which are connected by two telephone stations. It will be noted from the diagram that the transmitters and receivers of the radio link are shown separately. This is for the reason that there are two separate antennas employed for transmitting and receiving which are located in separate buildings located far enough apart so that there is no interference between them. A loop antenna may be employed at the receiving stations.

Central office "A" is of course connected by means of trunk lines with the central office of other nearby cities or through toll offices to the central offices of distant cities. These central offices are represented on the diagram by the circles connected to the circles labeled "A" and "B". Each of the central offices marked "M", "N", "O", "P", "Q", "R", "S", "T", "U", "V", "W", "X", "Y", "Z" is of course connected to several thousand individual subscribers. By means of the system outlined each of the thousands of subscribers in any one of the central office districts can talk to any other subscriber either entirely by wired telephony or by a combination of

PROF. JAFFA WILL TALK ON SUBJECT OF "VITAMINS"

Radio Lecture Tonight Is Second in Series of Educational Program.

M. E. Jaffa, professor of nutrition at the University of California, will deliver a lecture from KLX, the radio broadcasting station of THE TRIBUNE tonight from 7:15 to 7:30 o'clock.

The lecture is one of a series in an educational program which THE TRIBUNE is conducting in co-operation with the university, and which has been approved by President David P. Barrows. Professor Jaffa is the second faculty member of the university to lecture from KLX within the past seven days. His subject will be "Vitamins," and his talk, which will be of a practical educational nature, will appeal to the thousands of adults who listen in each evening while KLX is on the air.

Tomorrow night THE TRIBUNE will broadcast a lecture which will appeal to the women radio fans. Edna Wallace Hopper, known as the "22-year-old flapper," and who to all appearances is a 19-year-old girl, will talk for 15 minutes on how to keep young; how to retain youth; how to bathe, diet, sleep and to remain a child. She will broadcast from 7:15 to 7:30.

Friday night, in addition to the regular press reports, KLX will, from 8:15 to 9 o'clock, broadcast a regular Friday night entertainment. The principal will be Mrs. Irma Randolph, well known Oakland soprano, and Munroe Salisbury, moving picture and vaudeville star. Salisbury will recite a selection by Robert W. Service. A series of special events will be broadcast from KLX during the coming week.

"RAIN, RAIN GOES AWAY," DROPS ALL FOR EASTBAY

The nursery rhyme admonition, "rain, rain, go away, come again some other day," was obeyed by the weather man yesterday in Oakland and the rest of the bay district. A brief drizzle, just enough to dampen the sidewalks a trifle, marked the first rainfall of the season. The amount was so inconsequential that the Chabot observatory records indicated it as a "trace." Yesterday's rain extended from the San Francisco bay district to Eureka. Fair weather, with gentle northwesterly winds comprised the prediction for tonight and Thursday for Oakland and vicinity and the rest of Northern California. The prediction for Southern California was "probably showers" tonight; Thursday fair with light westerly winds. Rain and cooler weather are predicted for Idaho tonight. For the state of Washington the prediction is rain for tonight and tomorrow. Oregon will have rain tonight, according to the prediction of the weather forecaster.

It will be installed at their camp, where they hope to enjoy every comfort and all that is on the air. Boxing for men was introduced into the Olympic games in the 23rd Olympiad.

WANTED—MOTHER LOVE; THIS GIRL NEEDS AFFECTION

Welfare Society Issues Plea for Homes for Homeless Children.

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—Wanted—some mother love not being otherwise lavished.

The Berkeley Welfare Society knows where a little bit of love can be used to great advantage and an appeal for help in meeting the organization's needs was today sent forth.

In the words of Miss Cecil Mossbacher, children's agent of the society, here is the appeal: "Have you an extra room in your home? Have you an extra hour or so to give to caring for some homeless child? Have you a bit of mother's love not being put to use for which some child's heart is longing? If so, will you not consider taking into your home one or more of the children under the care of the Berkeley Welfare Society whose homes have been broken through some misfortune? The children are not to blame in any way. They have the same needs and wishes of children from more fortunate homes and these needs must be met. "The children's work of the Welfare Society is supported by the Berkeley Chapter of the Red Cross. Its ideal is to give to every child under its charge the best possible opportunity for development and happiness. Its method is by boarding these children in proper foster homes. For the child's care the society pays $17.50 a month and furnishes milk, clothes, and medical attention. "At the present time there is a pressing need for a home for a little girl, age fourteen. She is a very attractive child and one that would bring real comfort to any family group. A sister and brother, ages eleven and fourteen, are asking for a home together. Two adorable little girls, ages three and eight, together with their small brother of seven years are badly in need of a mother's care. These are Catholic children and must be placed in a Catholic family. It is most desirable that the children be kept together, for there is a very keen sense of family love for each other. "Anyone interested is asked to communicate with the Children's Worker of the Berkeley Welfare Society, 2129 Grove street, phone Berkeley 9434."

LAST RITES GIVEN.
RICHMOND, Sept. 27.—Funeral services for Mrs. Julia Gonnell, who died at Oakland Sunday, were held today from the home of her sister, Mrs. C. B. Schaefer, at 271 Cerro. The procession proceeded from the home to St. Ambrose Catholic church in Albany, where mass was conducted. Interment was in Sunset View cemetery.

Delegates Gather At M. E. Conference
SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 27.—Delegates to the Northern California Methodist Conference, which opens here today, began to arrive yesterday. A banquet to visiting ministers and their wives was given. C. D. Hinkle, Mayor C. C. Kratzstein and H. H. Main delivered addresses of welcome.

Exide BATTERIES

The impulse to fly

The propeller revolves and, like a liberated bird, an airplane soars into space. The spark of ignition comes from an Exide Battery used in so many of our airplanes.

Not only in the air, but on land and sea and under the land and sea, Exide Batteries play an active part in the affairs of men. They propel submarines when beneath the surface; they run the locomotives used in mines; they furnish current for lighting farms and country homes; and on the land, Exide Batteries propel street vehicles, supply the current for the telephone system, and in a score of ways assist in America's commercial supremacy.

The Exide made for your automobile is the result of the longest and widest experience; and it will give you exceptionally long and reliable service.

You should find the nearest Exide representative a useful man to know.

TRIAL ON AUTO
THEFT CHARGESWilliam R. Richards' Bail Is Fixed at $2000 After Preliminary.

William R. Richards who was arrested in a stolen automobile on August 26, was today held to answer to the Superior Court by Police Judge Tyrrell on a charge of grand larceny. His bail was set at $2000.

A second felony charge of assault with a deadly weapon against Richards was continued in the police court for two months. This charge was sworn to by W. D. Lewis, who claims that when he attempted to recover the stolen automobile Richards drew a loaded revolver. The complaint on the automobile charge was sworn to by L. C. Allen.

Richards' wife, Mrs. Effie Richards, who was in the machine at the time with her husband, was charged with carrying a concealed weapon. Her case has not been tried.

Odors Opposed
On Waterfront
At Berkeley

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—Whether Berkeley's waterfront will be thrown open to all kinds of factories and a "restricted area" done away with will be decided by the city council at a hearing October 24.

Carol Aronowicz, consultant to the city planning commission, would keep the northern and southern ends of the waterfront for all kinds of factories, with a ban placed against "obnoxious" plants located in the central section.

Under the provisions of the zoning ordinance a public hearing must be held to decide the matter. Aronowicz declares that obnoxious odors make certain factories undesirable for the central portion of the city and he predicts a protest against action as favored by the council.

VOTE ON SCHOOL BUILDINGS

Is Promise.

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—Under spreading willows in the natural setting of the outdoor theater in Codornices Park, Euclid Avenue and Euclid street, dancing maidens once again will hold the annual Harvest Moon Festival on Saturday evening.

Under the direction of Mrs. C. C. Boynton, who has made the festival a tradition in Berkeley, the festival will be even more colorful and beautiful this year than in previous autumns.

Where Land Sprite and Water Nymph Meet

"Come on in, the water's fine!" says CARMA WHITE (left) to ELIZABETH DUHEM, in the rehearsal for the annual Harvest Moon Festival, to be held at Berkeley.

White, Diana of the Shrine, Viola Worden, proclaimer and interpreter, Ruthenia Stevick, Apollo, Roger Sturtevant.

Chorus of children from the Hillside, Garfield, Oxford and Cragmont schools will also participate.

From the Cora Williams Institute will add to the beauty of the pageant. Among the dancers will be Jane Ashby, Jane Farley and Elizabeth Duhem.

Saturday night's festival will take the form of a community gathering, the funds derived to go toward completing Codornices Clubhouse. Beginning at 8 o'clock in the afternoon the festivities will continue until 9 o'clock. Guests have been asked to attend in costumes or having clothes and to carry their supper to be eaten around camp fires to be built in the canyon which features the natural park. The festival will be open to the public.

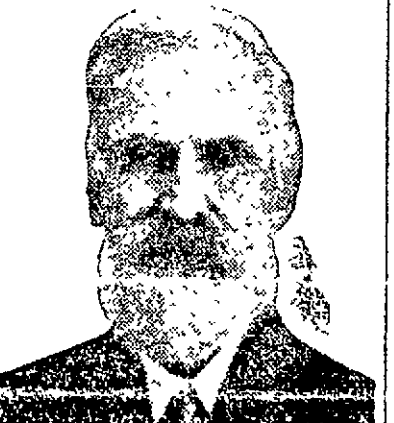

Avenues Remain

Residence Property

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—College and Alcatraz avenues in Berkeley will remain strictly residential according to a decision of the city council yesterday in overruling a recommendation of the city planning commission and sustaining the protest of a large delegation of property owners.

The particular property which is was desired to reclassify was located at the northeast corner of College and Alcatraz in order that a store building might be erected by Leslie B. Wilson, owner of the property. Wilson was represented at the heated hearing by Attorney J. S. Lamson of San Francisco, while John L. Martel, 3103 College Avenue, led a delegation of objecting property owners who declared that their homes would be lessened in value and the desirability of the district curtailed if the store was built.

Preserve Your Strength

Portland, Oreg.—"I could scarcely get around to attend my duties on the farm and knowing that I needed something to relieve this condition, I went into a drug store in Washington and asked the druggist what he thought would be best for my condition. He immediately recommended Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I bought a bottle and commenced taking it and it helped me right away. After the second bottle I felt fine, my appetite was greatly improved and I gained strength right along. I am a man seventy-eight years of age and can get around as well as many younger men and feel that I owe a great deal to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery." John Franklin Cox, 1248 E. Yamhill St. Go at once to your neighborhood drug store and get the "Discovery" in tablet or liquid and you'll be surprised at the way you'll pick up.—Advertisement.

BERKELEY PAVING
TO SAVE $20,000

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—With bids for the paving of Telegraph Avenue $20,000 below the estimates made by City Engineer C. L. Huggins, work on that thoroughfare is expected to proceed without delay.

Three bids were received by the city council yesterday ranging from $100,000 to $104,216. Estimates placed on the work by Huggins approximated $120,000. The bids will be carefully figured by the city engineer's office and a report probably made at next Friday's meeting of the council.

Work of installing a storm sewer on Telegraph Avenue preliminary to the paving has already started. Telegraph Avenue will be paved from its southerly terminus to Dwight way to conform with work done in Oakland.

Collins Gave Pass
For Own Funeral
To Oakland Man

Michael Collins, late chief of the Irish Free State forces gave at least one pass to his own funeral.

This is the story brought back from Ireland by C. J. Twomey, a local tailor. He says that one of his own visiting cards with Collins' signature written on the back served as a pass after Collins' assassination.

On the night before the Irish leader was slain Twomey visited him at his headquarters in the city of Cork and asked for some memento of the famous Irishman. Collins inscribed his name on one of Twomey's cards.

"I treasure this card more than all of my possessions," said Twomey yesterday after his return from Europe. "I believe that it is the last signature of the famous Irish chief. Presentation of it admitted me to the city hall in Dublin three days later to view the patriot's remains as well as to the funeral."

According to Twomey at least eighty per cent of the people of Ireland are supporters of the Free State and that despite the continuous warfare prosperity and activity in industry is apparent on every hand.

Twomey was visiting his brother, a merchant in Macroom, a town in County Cork, when the Republican forces burned Macroom castle and blew up the bridges and barracks as they fled before the advancing Free Staters. His experienced many outbreaks during his stay in Ireland but was subjected to no inconveniences. Twomey was accompanied by his wife and Mrs. Elizabeth Fredericks, a friend. They visited England and France on their return trip.

MINE ENGINEERS
U. OF C. GUESTS

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—Mining engineers from all parts of the country, who have been attending the 12th annual convention of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers in San Francisco, made a tour of the buildings and grounds of the University of California today.

Dean Frank H. Probert of the College of Mines acted as official host to the visitors.

Special attention was paid to the mining and other engineering departments of the university.

The party of engineers, numbering nearly 200, were the guests of the Faculty Club at luncheon. Later they attended a tea at the Claremont home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rickard.

During the day the mining engineers were taken on a tour of the points of scenic interest in Oakland, Berkeley and Piedmont, including a trip along Oakland's Skyline boulevard.

Tomorrow the engineers will visit Stanford university, where they will be entertained by Theodore J. Hoover, of the Geology and Mining Department. Trips to Chinatown in San Francisco, and to Yosemite, are other entertainment features planned for the visiting engineers before their departure.

Berkeley Pays For Eight Garbage Cars

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—Eight garbage trucks with a total value of $28,000 were yesterday added to the property belonging to the city of Berkeley. The council cleared a warrant for $1000 for an Oakland automobile company paid, the last installment due on the trucks. Two more garbage trucks are being purchased in a similar manner by the council.

Try This on Your CatarrhPrompt Relief Given
By "Deo" Vapors

Catarrh is nothing more nor less than a chronic inflammation of the nose and throat. It usually begins with a cold in the head, although it may result from breathing dust or any foreign matter that irritates the delicate membranes.

Ordinary methods of treating catarrh are failures simply because they don't reach the affected areas. You've got to heat these raw, tender spots that are hidden away where liquids and sprays never touch them. The best and most effective method is to inhale the fumes of "Deo" each night and morning.

Place a spoonful of "Deo" in a tin pan or cup and hold over a flame. Fill your lungs and inhale the fumes with the soothing, healing vapor. Hold your breath for a few seconds and release slowly. This allows the vapor to penetrate every nook and corner, where it concentrates in fine particles, destroying germs and gradually healing the inflamed membranes.

Right away you will begin to feel better. That nasty dripping in the throat will cease—the hacking and spitting will lessen—you head will be clearer and you will again be able to breathe freely through your nose.

SCHOOL CHILDREN
BENEFITS SHOWN
IN HEALTH EXHIBITSpecial Desk and Windows
Aid Studies, Declare Teaching Experts.

The effect of light and ventilation on the health of the child will be graphically shown at the International Health and Safety Exposition in the Oakland Auditorium November 17 to 26, through a new type of desk and a modern school window, both devised by John J. Donovan, former supervising architect of Oakland.

These devices, now in general use in Oakland and many cities throughout the country, will be explained for the first time in detail to the public and their effect upon the health and well-being of school children will be shown by facts, figures and lectures.

The desk and window, according to Donovan, are both the result of many years' work on the part of school experts toward solving the problems of proper lighting and ventilation. The economic value of the window is seen in the statement of Will C. Wood, state superintendent of education, who recently said that it cost the state $7,000,000 a year for those children who failed to pass their examinations and were forced to go back through their classes.

The ventilating window of Donovan's, it is said, has been proved to have a remarkable effect on children through filling the room with fresh air, which banishes mental fog and puts the pupils in condition to meet and solve their problems.

The desk is looked upon by school authorities in Oakland and elsewhere as the greatest advance ever made in school desks. It is known as the "Donovan" desk, and gains its advantage from the fact that it places the pupil on a slant with his back partially toward the light.

HUNGER-STRIKING
WOMAN, IN AGONY,
ASKS FOR FOODMrs. Minnie Leach Confirms Reply to Campaign Committee.

Suddenly ending a thirteen-day hunger-strike, Mrs. Minnie Leach of Berkeley, who is serving a 60-day sentence in the county jail, today confirmed the assertions of jail officials Monday, that she would not attempt to continue her voluntary fast to the point of starvation.

Mrs. Leach is under sentence for violating the state medical practice act.

"I am not ready to die yet," she said today, in asking for food after thirteen days abstinence. "I believe there is work for me to do."

Mrs. Leach declared she had passed a night of extreme physical agony, and that her heart was giving her so much trouble that she feared to carry the strike further. Mrs. Leach had previously announced to the jail officials that she had no intention of allowing herself to starve to death through her hunger strike, and that she would abandon it as soon as it should become too troublesome.

The assertion of Mrs. Leach was made public by the jail officials Monday, through THE TRIBUNE, in reply to a statement issued by a representative of the campaign committee of an organization to which Mrs. Leach belongs. This statement was to the effect that she was determined to carry on her hunger strike indefinitely, and that she and her colleagues throughout the state would vigorously resist attempts to feed her forcibly.

"Press agent stuff" was the way the jail officers characterized the statement.
